Side : Herge . Rau . Roshuru

(Yuki) 「Oh work ～! I don't like you! Terettetettetetete… 」

After Yuki-San heard the report of Father, he was remodelling the Dungeon while singing a strange song.
Older Sister Seraria together with my Clone went to the Royal Capital. Yuki-San, Oriel and me are here.

(Herge) 「Euhh, Yuki-San, Why did you force the responsibility onto the Demon King? You went as far as camouflaging me with a fake death. 」
(Oriel) 「Herge, that's… 」

Oriel wanted to restrain me. However Yuki-San, while working, answered like it was nothing.

(Yuki) 「I think that you can understand, but if we did not set another target, Roshuru would suffer an attack from both Gai and Ritea.The public will think about it as a battle to avenge Herge's death.In this scenario, the death had to happen in public to make the Holy Country Ritea believe it. The fact that Lulu witnessed the death was especially convenient 」

I understood the reason.However, was it really something a good person should do? Such a feeling wriggled inside me. 」

(Yuki) 「If you don't like this, you can suggest something else to the King. I also want to be lessen the sacrifices and raise the benefits for everyone. if you can do it while finding another victim, I will gladly support you.]
(Herge) 「What! 」
(Yuki) 「If you can't bear it emotionally… That's true, if you go to the Holy Ritea Country and protest, a miracle might happen. The kind of miracle where they admit their wrongs and bow their heads to us.Well, if they could do that, they would not try to kill you.]

It was as he said, but.. but…!

(Herge) 「The Demon King was totally unrelated to this case!! And in particular, to make him responsible… 」
(Yuki) 「Then, should it be one of the Powerful Country remaining in Lemera? Or, should we put the responsibility onto one of the small Country? 」
(Herge) 「Why does the humanity have to fight amongst them?? 」
(Yuki) 「No, you were the one saying we could not use the Demon King here. 」

Yuki-San ignored me, he was really easygoing and wrote something down onto a really clean paper I had never seen before.

(Herge) 「Th,then, why did you push the responsibility at the Demon King?! 」
(Yuki) 「Because of the real damages, and because I heard that Seraria and the King would be the next one after Herge. I have no way to know whether it is the truth or not. But if it's the truth, then the Demon King is a good reason to form an alliance and stop it 」
(Herge)「However, we are talking about the Demon King!! 」
(Yuki) 「It is unrelated. The Demon King is an evildoer, that's enough to make his involvement in the matter convincing. If it is able to save hundreds, thousands or even tens of thousands of lives, wouldn't you agree with it? 」

It became impossible for me to continue.

(Yuki) 「I'm sorry, I know how you feel but I can't understand it properly. 」
(Herge) 「Why Desu!! Many lives were lost!! By denouncing Ritea and apologize… 」
(Yuki) 「To use Ritea… would there be any difference ? You are the reason, by using the name of Holy Woman, they used it against you and your surroundings. Do you understand? 」
「Eh? 」

My sight suddenly shook and became blurry… It was caused by me?

(Oriel) 「Yuki!! What are you saying!! Herge-Sama was trying to save lives!! 」

(Yuki) 「What led to the conflict this time? How was it good? The lives saved by the Holy Woman and the lives sacrificed in the conflict, Which was more?」
(Herge) 「That…」
(Yuki) 「If you understand Herge's feeling then don't whine on the current result.Don't act as the heroine of a tragedy.Even if no one would say it to you, I will.You are the cause of this conflict.」

In front of my eyes, everything was dark.No, I can see but, I was not able to see anything…

If you and Lulu did not became Holy Women, then the Holy Woman of Ritea would be needed.And the citizens from Ritea would remain calm instead of making a ruckus.」

(Herge) 「S..stop.」

(Yuki) 「Minister Loire would never harbour such ambition and would stay still as a small villain. Mauve and his friends would stay happy as well, with their families…」

(Herge) 「No」

(Yuki) 「The King, Aria and Seraria would not have to suffer from an assassination either.」

(Herge) 「NOOOooooooooo!!!」

(Oriel) 「Herge-Sama, don't panic!! Yuki, why did you have to make things like this! Keep your promise and protect Herge!」

Yuki kept working indifferently… What kind of nerves is he made of?
I could not look straight at him, I could only stand still, muttering.

(Yuki)「No, I only answered a question.Do I have to ask for your permission every time?」
(Oriel) 「Don't be silly!! You drove Herge-Sama to the wall completely!!」
(Yuki) 「She selfishly cornered herself on her own.It must be easy for you Oriel, you are always agreeing to whatever Herge says or decides, you can just put all the blame on her afterwards.」

(Oriel)「What did you say!? Where!」
(Yuki)「Really? If you were a bit more aware of your surroundings, then even if the information leaked. Would everything happen the same way it happened? Is it different?」

The things Yuki-San said were heavily infiltrating me.

(Herge)「How could I know, I'm not aware of the future… Being a Holy Woman, I thought I had to do my best for everyone.」
(Yuki)「I guess, I don't know the future too.Therefore, I do everything I can desperately.」
(Yuki)「With your circumstances, why are you cornered that much Herge? I assume that you were the cause Herge, but no one will blame you. The whole Country would rather feel sorry for you.」
(Herge)「What are you trying to say…?」

(Yuki)「Indeed, if you look at the whole picture, within the current situation, Herge being a Holy woman dealt a great amount of damage. However, the Holy Woman also saved many lives right? Was it also a mistake?」
(Herge)「No way, it was not…」
(Yuki)「I'm certain you can understand. If you can, then you will be able to do everything you can to save people in the future. To make them believe that the lives saved by Holy Women was not a mistake」
「…」
(Yuki)「Do you think that it is hypocrisy? But it is not good to stop it now.Am I clear?」
(Herge)「Yes you are, however, I'm not able to accept it…」
(Yuki)「Isn't it fine as well? Compared to someone who would choose to suicide in your situation, you are doing really good Herge.」

We remained silent for a while. Oriel relaxed a bit after she saw that my complexion got better.

(Oriel)「Yuki, wasn't there a better way to say things? There are some words you should not say」
(Yuki)「 This discussion had to be a bit harsh, otherwise, It would be useless. I don't think anyone can live completely clean without having done anything dirty.To someone not able to understand the meaning behind words, it would also be useless.I heard that all kind of guys are gathering.We can't have Herge answer「Yes!! I Understand!! Without her knowing anything about the situation」

Yuki-San put his pen down after he was done speaking and took the cup next to him.

(Yuki)「That's why Herge, I think that it is good for you to change your attitude a bit. While the King is dealing with the Country. Do you get it?」
(Herge)「Yes, now we can save a lot of lives.」
(Yuki)「Seems like you still have some misconceptions, but I guess it's fine. Who do you think is the most disadvantaged person in that case?」
(Herge)「The Demon King?」
(Yuki)「Try to think things a little more in depth. The Country will certainly press things on the Demon Lord. However, the one disadvantaged the most here are the people living in the land.」
(Herge)「Huuuhh…Yes, you are right」
(Yuki)「Will the persons living together still be able to it? How many do you think have fallen into slavery?」
(Herge)「Many people, I'm sure of it… What do you want me to do? I am supposed to be dead now.I'm no longer able to do anything.」
(Yuki)「Yeah yeah, think about it. And stop getting stuck at the same thought every time. Do you know what I plan to make inside the Dungeon in the near future?」
(Herge)「A village or a town… Impossible!!」

(Yuki)「That's the point, although I don't know how many slaves are available on the market… I asked the King to gather them for me up to an extent. Because the other side would probably don't accept to sell anything to the Dungeon.」
(Herge)「Are you going to force them into work!!」
(Yuki)「Think carefully. Would you manage to turn a blind eye in the future! If I gather the slaves and allow them to live freely here by freeing them from slavery, what would happen?」
(Herge)「If they can live here freely without being oppressed, wouldn’t they be happy?」

(Yuki)「It’s worth a try, although I don’t know if it will be well received.After some time, the slave dealers, instead of selling them at shady place will probably come here to sell directly.」

Yuki-San ended is talk and was staring at me.

(Yuki)「To make use of the previous experience, although I don’t know if it will be a village or a town yet, I want to entrust Herge with the administration. It will help your father relieve a bit of his trouble as well.」

After he said that, he handed me the paper he wrote a short while ago.

It was written on it 「Plan for the Dungeon’s village」

Chapter 20 - Mauve… Out!

It was a long time since I last saw new faces entering the dungeon.

Because of the recent events, I was really busy and could not find any time to manage the Dungeon.

Now that everything was handled properly, I could finally go and meet with them.

At that time, when I met them, although it was unreasonable, they were already standing on the main stage. They did not come here properly by doing the tutorial.

Finally, I was able to gather a lot of data. Enough of them to start the preparation and open the Dungeon.

The last time we had a serious talk about managing the Dungeon, it was something like the following.

(Yuki)「Because I will open a convenience store here, in the middle of nothing, please, have a good look and try your best to estimate!!」 It was something like that.

So, that was the main reason as to why I collected information. Regarding this, it was really fortunate that I knew members from the royalty and skilled adventurers.
Thanks to them, I somehow managed to earn the permission of the Country.

Oops, I went a bit out of place here. I asked Mauve to bring them.
I meant, the Slaves.

They were mostly young women… No, they were definitely all young women. After all, he did as I instructed him.

Hiyaho! it was a harem!! Although it was what I wanted to say, this was not the reason why I took them in. It was because I wanted my own pawns in my hands.

There was also a variety of other reasons. But look, these were real boobs!! Boobs!!

I had to remain calm…

No matter how beautiful were the Princess, the Drilled Princess or even the Holy Woman of Ritea; If I were to think about the future, I could not harbour any delusion about them.

That was enough delusions for now. It was finally the time to check the offering brought by Mauve and his party.

(Yuki)「Well, now that Mauve and his party are back from buying the Slaves, I intend to properly analyse and criticize everyone's taste in women.」

(Mauve)「Hey, wait!! Did you just say criticize!? I protest!!」

(Yuki)「Now now, don't worry about that. You should not be selfish and hold any grudge because you went outside to do it.」
(Mauve)「I am worrying!!」

(Yuki)「Alright , let's stop with all this random talk. Now I want all of you to introduce them, starting form Mauve.」

Selfishly, I ignored him. I decided to advance on my own. Right now, Mauve was probably doing his best to hold his complaints towards me.

(Mauve)「I understand. I will give an overall explanation first. As you can see, we were able to acquire nine of them. We are really sorry, but we couldn't obtain one from every race. I hope you can understand, but some unique races are extremely expensive.」
(Yuki)「That's really plausible. Did all of you buy three?」
(Mauve)「Che, you had a really good point. Come to think of it, do you have any problem with the content of the contract?」
(Raija)「Oh, if you place them under your protection, the contracts will hold no meaning. Just in case, us 3 will handle the slaves.」
(Yuki)「Is that so, but first I want to ask you. Do any of you have a girl he wants to get his hand on?」
(Mauve)「No, you can rest assured. Right now, if we were to blend with an unskilled novice, our balance we managed to get back will break.」

(Yuki)「I see, then, how about we begin with the self-introduction?」

After they heard me, the 9 Slaves standing before were a bit startled.

Likewise, it seemed that they never received any good treatment before.

(Yuki)「I don't know yet how much you heard from Mauve and his friends. But my name is Yuki and I am now your new employer.」

The girl with long ears reacted to what I said and had a puzzled look.
I wondered, was this girl an elf?

She, unlike your typical type of elf, had a really big chest.

(Elf-Chan)「I'm sorry for my impoliteness… are you not going treat us like slaves? What do you mean when you said employ…」

(Yuki)「That's correct, I wont treat you as slaves. I want do to many things in the future and I would like you to cooperate with me.」

(Elf-Chan)「Cooperation…? Then, you would probably prefer to treat us as slaves?」

(Yuki)「Fufufu, Oh I don't need to hide it. But your new tasks could possibly even be harder than the one you would do as slaves.」

When they heard me, all of their face twisted.

(Mauve)「 Oi Oi , no need to frighten them so much. Aren't they pitiful?」

(Curse)「Mauve, hold it. Yuki must have taken everything into consideration already. That's Because the girls will have to manage and protect this place in the future.」

(Raija)「Curse had a point. They might want to flee after all.」

(Yuki)「Stop it, it's painful to hear.」

Curse agreed with me, but what Raija said made me frown.

(Elf-Chan)「To manage this place? What kind of thing is it?」

The elf girl from before asked for more explanation, while tilting her head.

(Yuki)「It's a simple story. We are the people responsible for this dungeon. After the Dungeon was subdued by the now deceased Herge-sama. The story is as follow. We will construct a village or a town here, and Herge's Older Sister, Seraria-Sama have in her possession the proprietary rights.

(Elf-Chan)「It seems that we were brought here for an experiment…」

This girl was quite a nice child. She might develop fairly well if I taught her.

(Yuki)「You're wrong, your safety is guaranteed. What I want you to do here is something different.」

(Elf-Chan)「How is it different?」

(Yuki)「You were not brought here for an experiment, and that's only for one reason. It's in order to follower Herge-Sama's wish. She was really eager to create a place where everyone who lost his family and everyone who lost his home, because of the war, could live together happily.」

(Elf-Chan)「Herge-Sama did…」

(Yuki)「We created a plan. We want to make a safe haven here and collect the slaves from everywhere. We will afterwards free them from their contract. That's why, the first thing we need is manpower. If you agree with this story, we want you to help here. Even so, I hope that you can treat the former slave nicely. We can't afford to have anyone here who will hurt them.」

The existence of Herge-Sama was useful. Thanks to that, I will not have to reveal my existence.

I think it was the safest choice, since I knew nothing about the outside world, it was better that I didn't get discovered by anyone.

Because I came from another world, I needed to stay hidden for a while.

(Elf-Chan)「However, I don't have any experience into building a village, neither a town. And probably everyone here are the same…」

After she said so, she looked into her surrounding to see if anyone had knowledge on this matter. But all the remaining slaves shook their heads, agreeing with her.

(Yuki)「You don't have to worry. Mauve, his friends and me will support you. But, firstly, I want you girls to tell me about the cultural differences between the races. It will be necessary when making a village or town here, because we plan to gather people from many races in the future. I want you to consider this problem as much as possible, and even more when we are not present. I would like to ask for your cooperation.」

(Elf-Chan)「If we cooperate but don't bring results, will you drive us out?」
(Yuki)「That will never happen. As long as you try your best and get involved with the management. But regarding what you understand, what you hear or what you see. I will have to ensure that you don't leak anything outside as it will be regarded as huge treason if you do it.」
(Elf-Chan)「I guess that's only natural. I understand. I will cooperate with you to make Herge-sama's wish become reality. I will make this place a better one for all the people who met with tragedy.」

Everyone nodded after hearing her. I was glad that everything went so smoothly.

(Yuki)「Then, if you are going to cooperate with us, shouldn't you introduce yourselves? It's inconvenient if I don't know how to call you.」

(Elf-Chan)「Ah, yes. Excuse my rudeness. The three of us who fell in love at first sight with Mauve-Sama, we are…」
(Yuki)「Mauve…Out!!」
(Mauve)「Why did you say out!!」

I cant ignore such a statement, to address him with Sama and to claim that you had fallen in love with him?? This was enough of a teasing.

(Yuki)「Che ,If I meddle here, we will never end. Please end the introduction at once.」
(Elf-Chan)「Wha, what? I understand. Then starting from me…」

(Ellis, Known as Elf-Chan until now)「My name is Ellis. As you can see, I am an elf. Although I can use a little magic, I don't have any battle experience. I can do a bit of arithmetic. Please take care of me in the future」

So she's Ellis huh, When I looked at her status, I saw that she was already level 10. Wasn't this considered really high? From my understanding, the status of a 18 years old commoner should be around level 5.

The first impression I had of her was that I felt like she had the qualities to be a leader. If you consider the fact that took the lead and was the representative for all the slaves. It seemed that I could expect a lot from her in the future.
For her impression, I feel like she has the qualities of a leader

As I said before, She was a 160CM blond beauty with long hair and an overflowing chest.

(Tori)「 E..euh.. I am Tori~ Desu!! I am from the wolf kin of the beastman tribe ~ Desu!! Magic, I can't… but I am very confident with my physical ability ~su !! Please take care of me ~su!!」

Tori-chan's level was really high, as amazing as 21, She must be part of a battle race huh!! Well putting aside the gag with her size, she gives the impression of a dog eared girl. And, to be honest, I was really thankful that the beastkin were not some extremely hairy people.

She had short and white hair. Some place where shining, was it because she had some kind of curly hear?

(Aslin)「I am called Aslin ～Desu. I am from the human race… My knowledge is really poor, and I can't do anything like battling or magic… The only thing I can do is cooking and housework…」

Her voice became smaller and smaller as if it was about to disappear towards the end of her introduction. I understand that kind of feeling. It must have been hard for you, Aslin-Chan, to introduce yourself.
If you looked at the 9 girls, she was by far the youngest. I didn't think anyone, including me, would choose such a little Loli.
Aslin had short hair with a chestnut color. She had a bobbed haircut, I think that it suited her really well.

(Yuki)「Thank you three for your introductions . I am thankful to Ellis for answering back to me since the beginning. As for Tori, she is full of energy. Please take care of me in the future. And Aslin, you don't need to worry. cooking and doing housework are truly important in order to live after all. Well, take your time to learn whatever you find useful.」

(Ellis)「No, I am the one who should thank you for the time you took to explain things to a slave like me.」
(Tori)「Yes!! Please tale care of me ～Desu!!」
(Aslin)「Am I a nuisance…?」

Only Aslin seemed to be uneasy. Since there was nothing more I could do, I tried to calm her down by patting her head, this is the best feeling when dealing with children.

No, except for that one!! there was an annoying kid in my neighbourhood who hated me with a passion… His parents seemed really pleased with it!!

(Yuki)「Then, I will give you my judgement Mauve!!」

(Mauve)「What judgement!!」
(Yuki)「Lolicon, you're out!! I have no doubts, you're a lolicon!!」

She was way too young!! No matter how I loked at her!! I understand that you mistook her for your child, but please, think carefully!! Otherwise it will once again bring troubles for me in the future!

With a young child like her, I wonder how much she would grow with a good education. Although I wanted to know it, there was nothing I could do if the person herself rejected it.

Let's see, what we had now with the 6 remaining peoples.

Chapter 21 - Caught Off Guard

(Yuki)「Well, now that we kicked out Mauve for good, all that's left is Raija and Curse, please go on」

I think that I need to point something out here. For whom you ask? It's for the reader, it's something that you absolutely have to read. All the characters in this story are 18 years old or above!!
Did you hear well, all the characters in this story are 18 years old or above!! That's why, this story is legal, no matter what the outcome is.
No , I didn't think about that. Alright?

(Raija)「Understood. Then let's begin with me. I'm sorry, Curse」

(Yuki)「no, the order doesn't have any particular meaning」

When I said so, Raija and 3 of the slaves stepped forward .

(Raija)「First, the ones I selected would be something like guards or sentinels in the story Yuki just explained I guess? I selected them based on their firmness.」

Raija explained the reasons and motives behind his choice. It was a different and extremely welcomed way of choosing personnel, unlike Mauve. On the contrary, it made criticizing difficult.

(Riel)「Hello! My name is Riel ~Desu, a member of the cat beast man race ~Desu. As Raija-San said, I can handle weapons up to some extents. I believe that I will be able to help if you plan to build a village or a town here.」

Riel's level was 18. Around 150 cm tall, she gave the feeling of a freshman high school student with short hair that was a mix of black and white. And of course with cat ears. She had a slender figure which would be good enough to be considered a model. Maybe if she wasn't of this height?

Are? Up until now, there has been no ugly… Why were all the gathered slaves extremely beautiful women?

If this was the standard of this world, then I definitely had to beat the god who set the one on earth.

(Kaya)「I am Kaya, I am from the fox beast-man race. I am good at fire magic. I mastered the art of fighting with a stick. Happy to meet…」

(Riel)「Awawawa, that's no good. Kaya-chan, it is rude if you don't properly introduce yourself you know. This man is going to become our master after all. Please excuse her!! Kaya-chan isn't always like this」

Riel hurriedly followed up. Well… it was not like I intended to ask for their respect by ordering, for example, to kneel.

About Kaya, she had the look of a senior high school student. Her height was 155 cm I think? She had long and blond hair, with fox ears and tail.
Her figure was normal, but because it's well balanced, it was still a real pleasure to watch. Hey; this personal assessment, but compared to any of the persons present here, didn't my look appeared to be the worst?

Oh, her level was 12 and she had a considerably huge amount of magical power. I see, did Raija choose her because of her ability to use magic? After all, it would be troublesome if there were only soldiers who relied on physical strength.

(Philia)「u,um!! I am called Philia ~Desu!! I am a dwarf ~Desu!! Eto… Since I am young, I have yet to meet another blacksmith!! But I will do my best!!」

Philia-chan, like Aslin, had the looks of a young elementary school student with a height somewhere between 140 and 145 cm . She answered vigorously like a good child. Her hair was brown and was arranged with a ponytail.

Her level was 2 which was appropriate for her appearance. Curiously her skills were centered around blacksmithing like 「The Priestess of the Blacksmith God」 and 「The blessing of the Blacksmith God」.

Are , wasn't she amazing, this child?
Well, only those who dig such gems would be able to recognize them.
But why was someone like her mixed with them… How on earth did you find a child like this!!

All the characters of this story are absolutely 18 years old or more!!

(Yuki)「I am looking forward to working with you in the future. And Riel, don't think you will be useless because you only know how to move your body or use force. It's good enough if you try to find something you want to do. Kaya, I am eager to interact with you. You have to work hard from now on. Like I said to Aslin, Philia, even if you can't do anything right now, it's fine if you just do your best. Let's all put some good work into use in the future.」

(Riel)「Yes, I will try my best!!」

(Kaya「I understand…」

(Philia)「I will do my best in studying!!」

This time, as well, I had to pat someone. I patted Philia's head because she was youngest in their group. Wouldn't it look like discrimination if I didn't pat her head, like how I did with Aslin?

(Yuki)「Raija. I understood principally how you selected them. But I can't find the reason for your choice in regard to Philia's case?」

(Raija)「Yeah, I just felt that she was likely to have useful talents. I thought that she might show outstanding growths if I entrusted her to you. Curse has the same thought as me. And besides, you didn't have a child yet, am I right? If you want to develop a village or a town here, it won't do if you don't consider preparing a successor.」

I see, different from the lolicon out there, it seems he properly considered her future.

(Curse)「Then It's finally my turn. The ones I gathered fall under the description of civil officers. Except for one who like Raija-san said I hope you would observe her growth. It's what I wanted to argue about, but the main reason was a problem with the money. Because we are in a state of war, the prices for educated slaves increased exponentially. So, I would like you to forgive me about this.」

Curse said that with a wry smile on his face. Even though I had not expected them to bring back 9 slaves, the problem with money still came nonetheless.

When I sent Mauve and the others for shopping, I gave them some jewelry that took a considerable amount of DP to obtain. Objectively, this was still a freshly made dungeon.
They likely had very little money left.

(Millie)「Please, excuse me. I am called Millie. I am from the human race. I worked as a receptionist in the guild branch in the town were Mauve-San and his party had an exclusive contract. I can process documents and do arithmetic to some extent.」

Millie-San huh, she gave the impression of a college student. She has short black hair and her height was around 160 cm.

Her level was 14. And her figure? Voluptuous.

Indeed, what Curse said was true. She will fit perfectly with a job as a civil officer.

However, for someone from the town of Mauve's group to be a slave was…

Millie-San guessed what I was thinking when she saw the change in my expression.

(Millie)「I was the only one who was bought by Curse-San among the survivors. So I feel somewhat guilty about it. But would it be possible for me to save everyone if I do my best here? If so, please allow me to work here!」

There was no anxiety on her face. In that case, I will have you do your best.

(Lutz)「how do you do~, I am Lutz. I am from the rabbit beast-man race and I used to work as a merchant. I turned into a slave during the mess this time, though … Oni-San, It's a relief for me that you look like a kind person!」

Lutz gave the impression of a high school student, I thought? She was tall, somewhere around 170 cm I believed.
Her hair was long and wavy, the color was pink… PINK!!? Why couldn't anyone feel the strangeness within the color of her hair!?
Wait wasn't Lulu's hair blue!?
Her level was 16, It seems that I wasn't really able to understand the average level of this world yet…
Of course, she had rabbit ears!! Her figure was of the balanced type.

(Lutz)「Although I said that I am a merchant, I am used to traveling by feet most of the time. I am very confident in my physical strength you know~. I believe that I will be of help one way of another」

Ah, now I understood better why her level was high for a merchant.
Finally, the last child was… .

(labiris)「I am labiris. I am from… the succubus race. The things that I can do… they are none in particular」

Labiris had the appearance of a young elementary school student. She was averaging the height of 140 cm.
Her purple hair was done in a twin tail hairstyle. Even though it's a really strange color, there wasn't any sense incompatibility.
The problem was laying with her body. Because that was the first time the slaves came here, they only had some light clothing to cover their bodies.
Even though I had not yet heard about the way of handling slaves in this world, it might be because of the feeling these 9 were giving me.

So the problem in Labiris's body was that, despite her small stature, her chest was way too big! Because their clothes had no sleeves, you could easily testify about their authenticity.
In order for you to understand how big it was, even if you compared her to the current members of the big breasted group; Ellis and Millie; she was still considered big.

If you include their heights and sizes, wouldn't she have the largest size overall? The Succubus race, how fearsome are they? Or could this child be a special case?

(Yuki)「I'm glad to meet the three of you. Let's work hard Millie in order to save your acquaintances. Lutz, I have highs expectations in your knowledge as a merchant. Labiris, let's do our best together with Philia and Aslin」

(Millie)「Yes!!」

(Lutz)「Aiyo～～, leave it to me」

(Labiris)「……?」

I patted Labiris's head to avoid discrimination. I was certainly not a lolicon, not in the slightest.

No one can make my steel like will waver.

And then, Labiris opened her mouth.

(Labiris)「Are you a Doppelganger…? Are you not Yuki huh? Where is the real one?」

That's right, the current me was the ultimate remote-controlled dummy 「the Doppelganger」 which was created using DP.

The fake Herge was also created using this Doppelganger skill. I will fully explain it later on. But that wasn't the problem now…

(Labiris)「I have a skill that allows my eyes to see through the true appearance of thing… Are you the follower of the dungeon master? Even though I don't understand it very well, I want to have a proper talk with Yuki… Call him.」

My real identity was revealed so frankly in front of the 9 slaves. Well, I didn't know whether those 9 will believe it or not, though.

I can't let my guard down against the children of this world. There was no way that I would be defeated by some breasts. Not like this Lolicon out there!!

Chapter 22 - Bathing Is A Culture Japan Is Proud Of

(Millie)[Heh, did you just say Dungeon Master?]

Millie stared at me with a twitching face. In the meantime, Labiris looked at me with a strange gleam in her eyes.

(Ellis)[You own one of the Appraisal skill!?]

Ellis also seems surprised and raised her voice.

(Labiris)[Huh…!?]

At this reaction, Labiris shrugged her shoulders. After closely looking, I somehow discerned bruises on her body. Was it related to something sexual?

(Yuki)[Please wait. As for me being a Dungeon Master, I don't plan to harm you in any way. And for now, I will have to postpone the explanation. Then, let me ask you. Is there anything wrong with me having a skill from the appraisal skill tree?]

When my eyes met with Curse, and I asked him, he seemed surprised. While I was waiting for him to call me out, I stared at Labiris.

(Curse)[Ahhh. It's only natural for you to not to know, Yuki. The effect of the appraisal skill is identical to his name. By looking at someone, you will be able to view his status. The ones who practice advanced Appraisal can even see through lies. That's what the problem is about. You must always tell the truth]

(Yuki)([I see, you are really able to use that skill. Can you explain a bit more about it?]

(Curse)[Yeah, it makes it possible to conspire against your allies and fabricate the truth. And in your case Labiris, we have a problem.]

(Yuki)[Labiris will become an obstacle … Right?]

(Curse)[That's right, although her value is immeasurable if she can actually see the trough the truth, she can also become an obstacle. After all, she can see everything about status, and nothing can be hidden. In the adventurer guild and town, there is an appraisal crystal, but that one can only view the level and class. An item that can see the status more clearly doesn't exist and can't be created]

(Yuki)[However, you can still understand the status and levels of the whole town thanks to that.]

(Curse)[Regardint that, the kings of the various kingdoms thought that it was enough ant that revealing anymore will bring different problems. That's why, for people with the appraisal skill like Labiris, they will be swiftly erased if they manage to find them. What is unusual is that she managed to stay safe until now.]

In that case, why did Labiris reveal herself just now? Because she didn't know us yet, she still had the possibility to end up killed on the spot when she did it.
I stared at Labiris while pondering about her actions. And as if she understood my thinking,,,,,,,.

(Labiris)[People here were all friendly to me… Especially Aslin who didn't get scared even after knowing about my skill… I will protect my new friends by all means]

(Aslin)[Labiris-chan!!I… am sorry!! Please don't hurt Labiris-chan!! Please don't torment her!!

The usually quiet Aslin bounced towards Labiris to hug her protectively. It seemed like Aslin was a strong child on the inside.

(Yuki)[Did you not think of anything after knowing my real identity?What about the rest of you, what are your thoughts?]

I said so and looked around.

(Mauve)[Us 3 don't really have anything to say. On the opposite I admire you. And Labiris, she will become a formidable woman in the future]

The lolicon said so and laughed.

(Ellis)[Please excuse me. I got along really well with Labiris on the way here. There is no way I will injure here after all this time]

Ellis brought back the earlier words, showing her acceptance toward Labiris.

(Millie)[As for me, I personally think that this child will be useful in many ways in the future. Of course, I am also aware that Labiris is a good child]
(Lutz)[eeeeh, so Labiris had the appraisal skill huh. So what about it? Won't it be profitable if we work together?]

Millie and Lutz also talked to her in a friendly way.

(Riel)[I don't have any particular problem!! I think that Labiris-chan is cute!!]

(Torri)[I am also fine with Labiris being here!! I guarantee it!!]

(Kaya)[Labiris isn't a bad kid…]

Riel, Torri, and Kaya also seem to adore Labiris.

(Philia)[Um, the appraisal skill? If she had it, does that mean Labiris is a bad child? I don't understand very well, are we still friend ?]

Philia didn't seem to understand very well, in a way her answer is the purest and truthful.

(Labiris)[I'm fine with anything you want to do about me, but don't harm everyone else… Please…]

(Aslin)[Labiris-chan!!]

Because she didn't know my real personality, I understand why she tried to protect everyone. That's quite an achievement for a kid, however, how should I explain it to Labiris.

(Yuki)[Then, I'll do as I please]

(Aslin)[What!? Please stop!! I beg you!!]

Aslin clung to my feet. But even with that, she wasn't able to stop me. Labiris's body became wrapped by light.

(Aslin)「Labiris-chan!!]

(Labiris) [Aslin…]

Am I a villain in such an inspiring story? Damn lolicon.

(Yuki)[Perfect! With this, all the bruises on your body should have disappeared]

What I did was using one of the healing magic skills. The high-leveled Extra Heal.

(Labiris)[Eh…?]

(Aslin)[Labiris-chan, all the bruises on your body disappeared!! What a relief!! I'm so happy!!]

Aslin buried her face into Labiris's chest. Can someone tell me the size of Aslin's head? Wasn't It heavy?

(Yuki)[You girl have no ill will towards me. Nevertheless, If you had, I would have dealt with you already. The reason why I can't appear outside is that I am the Dungeon Master, and I can't actually go out]

(Labiris)[What do you mean…?]

Labiris questioned me while caressing Aslin's head.

(Yuki)[Millie and Lutz. If I said that this Dungeon had a bad popularity, would you understand?]

(Ellis)[So that's what you meant before. Labiris, he sent a fake here to check if he could trust us]

Ellis informed Labiris with a face that showed her understanding.

(Labiris)[I don't understand…?]

(Millie)[It's simple. If he really is a Dungeon Master, and if he died, then the dungeon will get destroyed. As for why it will happen, it is because the Dungeon Core is connected to the Dungeon Master]

Millie advanced the discussion. However, it was different in reality. Now was not yet the time to reveal.

(Lutz)[I see~, Oni-san is very sly~. So, how are we? Can you trust us?]

Lutz stared at me while looking impressed.

(Yuki)[Yeah, it seems possible for me to believe in you. Besides, I will release you from the slave contract, and you will have to enter my Guardian Appointment skill]

[Guardian Appointment..? does it mean, you already trust us Yuki?]

Labiris stared at me and tried to confirm my words. Everyone else also seemed to be waiting for them.
After that, I did a straightforward and brief explanation of the rules and conditions of Guardian Appointment.

(Lutz)[haaah~ that's a really useful skill. I want it as well. Oops, we strayed from the discussion. If Onii-san's story is true; I will really benefit from this power. I believe in onii-san]

Lutz accepted everything without a problem, and everyone else didn't have any particular problem either… and finally.

(Labiris)[I understand… I will put my trust in you, Yuki. But promise me that you will come out often to see us after you apply the skill]

Labiris set such a condition.

(Yuki)[I'm okay with that. So now, I will begin]

Like that, I applied the Guardian Appointment skill to the nine. There was no mistake, unlike the time I did it with Oriel. That's good.

(Ellis)[The slave collar actually came off…]

(Millie)[For real…]

Ellis and Millie were doubting if what was happening to them was real.

(Lutz)[You are amazing~Onii-san. The future will be interesting!]

(Tori)[Thank you very much!! I will give all my strength to the dungeon village!!]

(Riel)[I will too!!]

(Kaya)[Thank… you…]

Lutz, Torri, Riel and Kaya bestowed me with words of thanks and promises for the future.

(Aslin)[that's a relief Labiris-chan!! The collar was taken off!!]

(Philia)[I am glad!!]

(Labiris[Un. If everyone is happy then I am happy too]

Aslin, Philia, and Labiris all looked satisfied.

(Yuki)[Good! But once again, I am glad to meet all of you. And although you already know, I am this place's Dungeon Master. I hope to get along with you from now on]

Talk done, I sent my clone to the back, and my true self appeared.

(Lutz)[Ooh~ Onii-San is wearing very unusual clothes. Where are you from?]

As expected of Lutz, she had the instincts of a merchant. She didn't need long to notice.

(Ellis)[Before that. Although we already understand that Yuki-san isn't dangerous… How do you plan to build a village or a town with so few people? Will any support come later? And do you plan on having us camp at the plains of the Dungeon today?]

What Ellis was asking about was justified.

(Yuki)[I will first answer to what Ellis said, please wait for a little Lutz. Allow me to explain the circumstances of this place.]

(Ellis)[Sorry sorry, today's sleeping place is top priority.~]

Saying that I start the 'Soko Hore WanWan' ability, I consume DP to quickly build enough of the buildings and be able to shelter the people here.
(TL: name of the skill appeared in the first chapter, I will stick with how he translated the name.)

Due to the recent incident with the knights who foolishly surged inside, I was able to gather around 500000 DP. Also, because another 400 died before the end of the battle, they finished absorbed by the dungeon. They gave around 1000 DP per person. Thanks for the meal.

(Lutz)[fuwaaaa~ you are really amazing Onii-San. So this is the real power of a Dungeon Master huh~ I understand now, with your ability, manpower is unnecessary. ~]

Only Lutz was able to talk about the buildings that were abruptly appearing in front of them. The other members had their eyes wide open from the shock.

(Yuki)[For the time being, please enter. Ah, and please take your shoes off at the entrance. It's a custom from my homeland]

(Lutz)[heeee~ You came from a really unusual place huh~? What is the hometown of a Dungeon Master like?]

(Yuki)[I will explain everything after we enter the house.]

Encouraged by me, the group followed inside the house. This house was an inn built using DP. Of course, it had an outdoor hot spring along with it. Although it had a considerably high price, around 2000DP, it wasn't something a Japanese person like me could compromise with.

(Yuki)[Alright, let's wash away your sweat before talking. Please follow me]

(Ellis)[Wash away the sweat? Is it a well?]

Ellis followed while restlessly looking around at the unfamiliar Japanese corridor we were passing through. The others were all roughly doing the same.

(Yuki)[Are you aware of something called bath?]

(Millie)[Isn't that something only the royal family and aristocracy can use? By any chance, do you mean there is a bath here!?]

Millie looked surprised and stared at me.

(Yuki)[Of course, it's a bath… More importantly, the real name of this bath is an outdoor hot spring!!]

(Lutz)[An outdoor hot spring? If Onii-san said it, then it must be amazing~]

Lutz followed me, she looked really excited. Her curiosity seemed to be fairly strong.

(Mauve)[kuwaa, it has been so long! A bath!! Yuki, since it is new, you should be the first to enter!!]

(Curse)[Oh, that's right. Yuki, do you have liquor here? Sake is fine as well?]

(Raija)[So this is an outdoor hot spring, huh, this bath is just as Yuki described it]

The three of them realized how great are the bath after they followed me here.

However, I had never drunk anything like Sake or Liquor inside baths. But I will try it diligently.

(Yuki)[Hehe. Here we are! Mauve and you two, this is the men's bath. Ellis and the others here is the ladies' bath. Because I will be explaining to the girls, you three can enter first. There are yukatas inside. You will also notice the place where the liquor is kept when you see it. Alo, Raija and Curse, please try to hold back Mauve for me]

(Mauve)[Yahhoooo!! It's a bath!!]

(Raija)[I understand. I will help myself to the liquor then]

(Curse)[I will put some effort. But Yuki your culture is too luxurious for me. Regardless, I will take it easy for a while]

After they had said so; the three passed the curtain and entered the men's bath.

(Yuki)[Well then girls, this way, please. Since there are many things to explain, please follow me]

Following that, I took our female members into the ladies bath.

(Lutz)[huwaaa~ for the time being, it seems there are various amazing things, but I don't know how to use it proberly]

(Ellis)[That..that's amazing]

(Millie)[So this is an outdoor hot spring,,,,,]

Lutz, Ellis, and Millie stared at the outdoor hot spring. They gave a feeling of tiredness because of so many surprising new things.

(Yuki)[For starter please use this basket to put your clothes in it, because you will wear the yukatas to go inside. You wear it, like this,,,,]

I quickly get dressed right there.

(Yuki)[Because your current clothes are going to get washed, please put on this yukata after you get out of the bath. You can also wear a towel when you want to enter together. Please bring the small towel with you when you get into the bath. Because it will become soaked of soap after washing, the big towel over there can be used when you get out of the bath. You use it to wipe the body]

(Kaya)[You even have soap here…!?]

Kaya seemed surprised at my statement. Aah, come to think of it even soap appeared to be a luxury in this world.

(Yuki[Do you know about shampoo… Or rinsing?]

(Lutz)[No~ very sorry Onii-san. I don't know at all]

Lutz scratched her head and laughed. For some reason, she was standing naked with a towel in one hand. Yet it wasn't only Lutz, all of them came here completely naked, just like her.

(Yuki[Oi, I am a man. And you are women. Don't go around walking naked like that]

(Lutz)[but you see~ We don't know how to use it, and we thought that it will be quicker if Onii-San shows us how to do it after we enter with you, right?]

(Yuki)[The problem is not that, you girls aren't slaves, and you have human rights. It's precisely for that reason that I didn't force the Guardian Appointment skill on you]

(Lutz)[Un Un, we understand Onii-san's kindness you know~. However, the truth is we would have been violated and turned into flesh slaves already. So, us entering with onii-san like this is only to thank you. And we can at the same time listen to a proper explanation on how to use bath]

When Lutz said that, Ellis and Millie who were at my side stiffened immediately.

(Yuki)[in that case, which do you believe is better, to be stripped forcibly or to take it off willingly?]

(Lutz)[I don't know how to use it. Please just give up]

(Yuki)[I understand… if you are all doing it on your own accord… Please wait,…]

I had done it, I resigned myself and entered the Ladies bath with them.

(Lutz)[If Onii-san desires it, I don’t mind going further though~]

Chapter 23 - Relaxation

I somehow managed to keep my sanity. I was on the verge of spiritual enlightenment.

(Labiris)[Please take care of me… I don't understand how to use any of this]

(Aslin)[Please]

(Philia)[I will do my best to memorize everything!!]

I had no problem with Aslin and Philia. There is no problem as they only had the figure of a child.
It's like an adult accompanying a child to the bath.
However, Labiris had two melons attached to her chest and I had to calm down. I was not a lolicon. I was an excellent gentleman.

(Lutz)[Although I feel sorry for Onii-san, since you are the one who understands these things the most, please get along with it~. We are going to enjoy this to the best of our abilities.]

Lutz said so while pushing those three in my direction. Of course, the other members are naked as well. Ah geez, maybe my heart could relax a little if I considered this as work.

(Yuki)[Well, there is no use in remaining embarrassed. There is no point either in staying here. We will catch a cold.]

Afer I declared that, I stopped hiding. Nonetheless, I was not an exhibitionist.

(Lutz)[uwaaah~Onii-san. If you do something like that with a businessman's face… We can't help but get noisy over here. But as Onii-san said, there is no point in catching a cold, so there is no helping it]

(Yuki)[I am sorry. Let's leave that for another time. Before entering the bath we first have to wash our bodies.]

Starting my explanation, I turned the faucet of the shower.

(Ellis)[That's amazing! When this one is turned, hot water comes out. And when that one is set, cold water comes out…]

Led by Ellis, everyone seemed to be surprised and gathered around the faucet.

(Yuki)[Adjust the temperature to your preference, then use the proper amount of the bubbly soap along with the towels in front of you to wash your bodies. Don't wash the hair though]

(Millie)[Ara? Can't you wash hair with soap?]

Millie threw such a question at me. Her big chest full of bubbles.

(Yuki)[You use the shampoo to wash the hair and then the rinse. First please wash your bodies with the soap. Once you washed away the soap, use the shampoo. It is in this blue bottle, and the rinse is in this pink glass. About how to use the shampoo… well I will just demonstrate to you. So please wait for a minute.]

Aslin, Philia, and Labiris washed their bodies on their own. But maybe because they were still children they forgot a lot of places.

(Yuki)[Aslin, make sure to wash behind your ears properly, just like this. You too Philia, make sure to clean the back of your feet. As for Labiris… since you have a big chest, it will become ugly if you don't wash it properly…]

I … did I just sexually harass Labiris?
(Aslin)[Etto, is it done like this?]

(Philia)[Yaay!]

(Labiris)[My breasts are too heavy… Please help me and support them. I don't have enough strength in my arms]

Was this legal… No, since I was just helping her there was no problem. I resignedly lifted Labiris's two melons with my hands while she was washing them with all her might. I wonder how it ended up like this including that I could enjoy these various things.

(Yuki)[Good, now wash it all away properly]

I looked around after those three had washed away the soap.

(Lutz)[Onii-san our side is ready as well]

It seemed like we made Lutz group wait for a while.

(Yuki)[Lutz, let's start with the shampoo. Please consider shampoo as soap but only for hair. We use it first to wash all the dirt off the hair. Then we use the rinse to finish taking care of the hair. I believe you understand the meaning of caring for the hair]

(Kaya)[Understood… I will try it]

Kaya took the lead after she heard me and began washing her hair. After that, everyone else followed.

(Yuki)[Aslin and you girls, will you wait for a little.? I will do it for you]

(Aslin)[Please do]

(Phillia)[Thank you very much]

(Labiris)[I am relying on you…]

Afterward, I washed their hair one by one.

(Phillia)[Fuwaaaaaaah~ it feels so good. additionally, the smell is refreshing]

(Aslin)[The feeling is strange. But I am happy]

(Labiris)[My hair became silky… it's amazing!]

These were the firsts impressions of the three little girls. As for the others…

(Lutz)[Onii-san!! Amazing!! We should sell it!! It will be very popular!!]

(Ellis)[heeeeh~ this is amazing indeed]

(Millie)[Even though it's amazing, it seems somewhat useless]

These were the impressions of Lutz, Ellis, and Millie. As for the beastman group…

(Tori)[Haaaah, I can only say that it is amazing!]

(Riel)[This is a first for me!!]

(Kaya)[My hair silky… feels good…]

It was also popular with Kaya, Torri, and Riel. However, the real show starts now!!

(Yuki)[Good, now start real thing!! We will enter the outdoor hot spring. Because the temperature is usually very high be careful and don't jump in.]
When I said that, the three who seemed about to jump in stopped moving .

(Yuki)[Jumping inside is forbidden since the water would rise in the air when you do so. Go in slowly. As for Aslin's group, because you are short you should enter using the stairs over there]

(Labiris)[I understand. Let's go you two]

(Phillia)[Yes!!]

(Aslin)[Wait I'm not ready]

As they went slowly, holding their hands, I followed right after them. Everyone experienced something new. And a short while after they entered, each of them had a different opinion .

(Lutz)[kuaah～ what is this. Onii-san I feel like my body is melting]

(Yuki)[No, you are not melting]

(Ellis)[But this is wonderful isn't it. Even though we are just soaking in hot water]

Everyone seemed satisfied with the outdoor hot spring,,,, but there is still something left.

(Yuki)[Hey I am sorry, but can you watch over the three little girls for a bit?]

(Millie)[Yes, I don't mind but where are you going?]

(Yuki)[To bring what makes the real charm of an outdoor hot spring]

The discussion ended, and I went to search for the sake and juices.

(Lutz)[Ooooh~ Onii-san even though this bath is already incredibly luxurious, you made it even more huh~. I am already willing to be Onii-san's bride!! It's decided!! Even if I can't become the first wife, I'm also fine being a concubine!!]

(Yuki)[Well, just calm down. When you mention an outdoor hot spring you have to enjoy sake while admiring the scenery and the starry sky]

I distributed the sake usually used in Obon festivals to everyone here.

(Ellis)[this is,,,, is it alright for us to have something like this?]

(Millie)[For some reason, I have become calmer]

Ellis and Millie leisurely enjoyed the liquor and the sky filled with stars.

(Torri)[For a warrior like me to be able to enjoy something like this,,,,]

(Riel)[It made me feel strange. But I don't find it unpleasant]

(Kaya)[It feels good…]

Torri, Riel and Kaya also seemed pretty relaxed.

(Labiris)[Yuki-san, thank you very much,,,]

(Phillia)[I don't plan ever to leave the village Yuki-san is building…]

(Aslin)[I misunderstood you until now Yuki. I am sorry…]

As for the three children, they were thanking me with faces full of tear. So you would cry if you are given something like this huh.
It seemed that this was not standard in this world. From now on, I will do my best to share it with them.
While I soaked in the bath, I heard a voice from the men's hot spring.

(Mauve)[Oi, we are going out ahead of you!! Because we want to relax in the changing room!!]

(Yuki)[Understood, we were going to get out soon anyway. Please wait!!]

I replied to Mauve and then looked at everyone else.

(Yuki)[Since I can enter here anytime, although I am somewhat reluctant, let's get out. Otherwise, we will end up suffering from a heat stroke.]

(Lutz)[Heat stroke? What is that Onii-San?]

(Yuki)[A disease that exists in places with high temperature I guess? For example, are you feeling dizzy right now?]

(Lutz)[Aaah~ I see. So you are the type that does everything in moderation huh. There is no helping it then. Let's enter here again later.]

Like that, we all went out of the bathtub. Damn, so many breasts!

(Yuki)[Now, squeeze the towel you brought from the dressing room firmly and use it to wipe your body. Since your skin had already turned saggy.

(Everyone)[[[Yes]]]

Like that, our bath time came to an end.

(Ellie)[ooh it's food!! Since it's from Yuki I wonder what type of surprise is this?]

(Yuki)[Well here it is]

I showed them the food after guiding them from the forefront of the group.

(Yuki)[Hey do you know about a kind of food called sashimi? Does something like that exist here? It's tasty you know.]

(Millie)[Yeah, it matches well with sake]

(Ellie)[Since it is made from raw fish, I was surprised that it tasted good but got used to it]

We were now inside the banquet hall.

(Riel)[Ooh, here it is. I don't mind if the young ladies decide to leave the raw fish for me you know]

(Lutz)[This, this is amazing. Really? O, Onii-san is this fine!? For us to get a feast like this!?]

Lutz seemed surprised to see on the table in front of herself a whole serving for one person.

(Yuki)[Yes, it's fine since this is normal here!]

(Lutz)[Once again, I swear to become a faithful and loyal servant to Onii-san!! I will follow you no matter where you go!!]

(Yuki)[It's fine, just eat for now. Although I placed chopsticks, if you can't use them, it's fine to use the spoons and forks]

Everyone ate the Japanese food arranged in front of them using their different ways.

(Lutz)[It's delicious… this cooking style, I've never seen it. Extraordinary dishes like these exist after all.]

(Ellie)[It feels like a part of my common sense is leaving me]

(Tori)[Is this thing called soy sauce? It's delicious!!]

(Riel)[The meal is so nice!!]

(Millie)[Fried food… Is so godly!]

After I had heard the voices of praise, the three children neared me.

(Phillia)([Ano, I am sorry!! I can't eat anymore…]

(Aslin)[I am full, sorry]

(Labiris)[I was able to use the sticks skillfully…]

(Yuki)[Aslin, Philia don't worry about it. The amounts you took was for adults in the first place. Labiris, these are called chopsticks, not sticks. They are quite convenient once you get used to them]

Also, it seemed that Mauve and the others already enjoyed their meals here and had already left.

(Yuki)[Well then, you are probably tired, so let's leave the detailed discussion for tomorrow. Ellis, I will hand this key to you. It opens the room next to the one used by Mauve and his friends. Since there is a mattress big enough for ten people, it should be sufficient for your use. I will meet with you again tomorrow to begin the explanations.]

(Millie)[Ah, yes. I understand]

(Labiris)[Yuki where are you going?]

(Yuki)[I will go to my room and sleep]

(Labiris)[I want to follow you as well. Is it fine?]

(Yuki)[Mmh, what do you think Ellis?]

(Ellis)[Wouldn't it be fine? Besides, I think there will be no problem even if you lay a hand on Labiris]

(Yuki)[I will pretend that I haven't heard this… Whatever, come this way Labiris]

(Phillia)[I, I want to go as well!!]

(Aslin)[Labiris-chan, I will come with you!]

In the end, I inherited with the troublesome job of taking care of the three kids. On the way to the room, Labiris talked to me.

(Labiris)[Nee… Why does Kazuya call himself Yuki?]

(Yuki)[About that huh, you knew and managed to keep silent. Thank you.]

(Phillia)[eeh, Is Yuki-san using a different name?]

(Aslin)[What are you talking about??]

(Yuki)[I have a little problem with my name, you see? That's why I want everyone here to keep this a secret.]

(Aslin)[I understand…]

(Phillia)[Got it]

(Labiris)[I won't talk about it!]

Their replies worried me a little. But I guess that it will be fine. I am already exhausted today and about to reach my limit, so I want to sleep quickly.

Chapter 24 - Good Night

My room was just next to the others' room. Well, that was natural because I had just built the inn. I entered my room with the three children following behind me.
(Yuki)[Well then, how should we deal with the futon? should I create an additional one for each of you?]

(Phillia)[We can't sleep together? it will be lonely sleeping like this]

(Labiris)[The three of us always slept together until now]

Philia and Labiris replied like this, but Aslin seemed to be struggling with something.

(Yuki)[What's wrong Aslin? Is there a problem?]

(Aslin)[A,ano, is there a place where I can pee? Should I do it in the courtyard?]

Aah that's right, in the middle ages in Europe, it seems that the servants did their business through a window in the castle…

Since Japan started to use its oldest sewage system during the Edo period, something like that hasn't happened since then.

Or was it established under the reign of the shogun Tokugawa after the Edo period?

Well, it didn't matter for now. In this world custom, they are probably using something like a river to do it.

(Labiris)[Are, are you already… at the limit!?]

(Yuki)[Wait, wait! We have a restroom here!!]

I grabbed Aslin in a hurry and dashed toward the toilet.

(Yuki)[Aslin sit down onto this. Have you heard about a potty before?]

(Aslin)[Yes!!]

Under the emergency, I brought her bottom towards the toilet. It felt so wrong!! Nevertheless, I couldn't help it. I didn't think that she had ever used one, let alone encountered.

(Yuki)[Wait a second, Ei!! Sorry Aslin!!]

(Aslin)[Hyaaa!! This is bad Yuki-san!!]

Aslin was already on the verge of bursting. The only thing I could do was to lift her and place her in the right position.

(Aslin)[Don't look !! Don't stare so much like that!!]

Aslin put her hand on my face to stop me from looking. More importantly, was it really fine for your back to be in that position? Aah did she get embarrassed that I was looking directly at her ?

To be a guardian was an impossible task…

(Aslin)[Auuuuuu,,,,,]

Afterward, When Aslin came out from the restroom, she displayed an embarrassed expression. She went behind Labiris and tried to hide.

(Labiris)[Yuki, to act weird all of a sudden is not a good thing… You should have brought her normally.]

(Phillia)[What do you mean?]

(Yuki)[Daaaa!! Labiris why do you seem like you already knew about this!! You mustn't listen to her, Philia!! I am exhausted, so I will just show you how to use the toilet!! Remember this!! Because I am going to demonstrate how to use the toilet to you girls, please help Aslin calm down]

After I had said that, I left the room with a dash. I felt like I would turn into a pervert if I stayed one more minute here. I am normal! I have no particular preferences!! What was I thought hard.

(Yuk)i[Hh sorry. I forgot, I was asked to explain how to use the toilet]

After I had entered the bathroom, Lutz ran toward me with full speed.
(TL : ABunny girl running toward you, Yuki, you should have been scared so much Fufuffu)

(Lutz)[Nice timing Onii-san!! I was just about to collapse!!]

With her thighs clamped tightly, Lutz hurried here hoping skillfully. Her movement felt natural. Was it because she was originating from the rabbit-kin?

(Lutz)[Eeeh!! what is it!!Do you want to see it, me wetting myself right in front of you!! It's here you know, and I might literally do it here you know!!]

(Yuki)[NO hold , hold on!! Get in here!!]

As expected even Lutz couldn't afford to talk while walking with such '～' hurdle.

(Yuki)[Hurry, just sit on the chair!!]

(Lutz)[Eeh!! There is not enough space for me to enter!!]

(Yuki)[Just do it on top!!]

(Lutz)[Yes!! I understand, Onii-san!!]

I took advantage of this moment to close the door. I am a man who learns from events I won't repeat the same mistake as I did with Aslin. Immediately after I closed the door, I heard the sound of flowing water. I should at least have the strength to endure the urges caused by such sounds right?

(Lutz)[fuwaaaa～ this is heaven]
(Yuki)[After you're done, you should find some paper next to you. You wipe yourself with it then discard it, can you see a silver handle? Water will flow out if you push it.]

(Lutz)[What!! I should use paper to wipe myself!? How luxurious!!]

(Yuki)[I understand that you might be reluctant, but you have to get used to it. It's ordinary in this place.]

(Lutz)[The water will flow? Should I use it like this? ooooh it is flowing]

Lutz came out from the restroom with a satisfied expression.

(Lutz)[What kind of thing is this heavenly place? Toilet was its?]

(Yuki)[That's right. Please teach everyone else how to use it]
(Lutz)[Haai～ I understand. But wouldn't it have been fine if you held me and brought me into the toilet?]

That was what I just did with Aslin a while ago.

(Yuki)[Ellis, how did you find using the futon? Were there any problems?]

(Ellie)[Etto is it really fine to explain our feelings like this?]

Looking at the mattress, Ellis displayed a restless face.

(Yuki)[Of course! Like it being hard to sleep on or too soft to get comfortable in something like that.]

(Ellie)[I am fine with the toilet but I still feel like everything is a part of a strange dream…]

(Yuki)[Just give up and get used to it]

(Ellis)[I will take it one step at a time…]

(Yuki)[We will discuss on various subjects tomorrow. You should just try and get a good night rest to prepare for it]

(Ellis)[…]

Ellis couldn't get her heart to rest at all. That was what her expression told me. But this lifestyle is normal for me, and I can't part with it. So they will have to deal with it.

(Yuki)[Ah, in case you are thirsty, there is a water bar like the one you saw in the bathroom a short while ago. if you put it in this kettle like thing and press the button, you will get hot water. The cups are here. After that, you can make either green tea or black tea by putting one of these tea bags inside the glass]

(Ellis)[Honestly… my common sense can't keep up with this place at all]

Ellis shook her head while putting a hand on her forehead.

Do your best I leave the task of explaining to everyone to you. I am going to sleep already. I didn't push too much onto Ellis because it was troublesome for her. I came back quickly because I was worried about those three in the room. That's right it's my duty as their guardian!!

(Labiris)[You are late… Philia went to sleep already]

(Aslin)[Ano, will it be fine if I lie down on the grass on the floor?]

(Phillia)[Nyuu]

When I returned to the room, I discovered that Philia was already asleep. As expected, it seemed like coming back a bit earlier was the right choice.

(Yuki)[I am sorry, it seems the four of us will be sleeping together today huh. I will lay the futon quickly then]

At that moment, I quickly spread the futons. One For adult and three for children, I think this much is enough.

(Yuki)[Because I will be sleeping in the middle you two should choose your favorite sleeping position. Where do you think should I place Philia?]

(Aslin)[Etto, because I have the habit of holding her hand while sleeping, I believe that it will be good if she sleeps next to me]

(Yuki)[Okay, next to Aslin then It will be stupid to waste time about meaningless things. Today Labiris will sleep on my right, Aslin on my left and Philia will sleep next to Aslin.]

After everything was said, I gently held Philia and placed her on the futon. Aslin lied down next to her and held her hand. I also lied down in the middle.

(Yuki)[Hmm? What is it Labiris, are you unhappy with this?]

(Labiris)[No… It's just that I never thought that there will come a day when I can sleep like this. I had mostly slept on my own.]

(Yuki)[Is that so! Then, if you never tried it, come over and just try!! Here!!]

(Labiris)[Kyaaa!?]

I approached Labiris who was staring at the futon and simply pushed her on it.

(Yuki)[I will turn off the electricity… I mean the lights]

(Labiris)[I would like you to treat me more gently…]

I turned off the lights and slipped into the quilt I had put earlier on the three kids.

(Labiris)[It's fluffy…]
(Aslin)[You are right… It makes it feel like all the time before today where everyone huddled together under a rag is a lie]

(Yuki[You two, can you please raise your heads for a bit]

(Labiris)[Like that?]

(Aslin)[…?]

I slipped my arms under their heads.

(Yuki)[It's better like this. I will feel bad otherwise if you suffer because you sleep in a wrong position. It's also because I might injure you if I move my hands while we sleep. I am sorry but you will have to press down with your heads]

(Labiris)[I understand]

(Philia)[I will keep that in mind]

I had already reached the limit of my carelessness. Aslin and Philia were already letting out the regular breath proving they were sleeping. Today must have been really tiring for them. To be a slave and proceed to a Dungeon with tiny bodies. After I had thought about them this way, I became even more considerate with them.

(Labiris)[hey Yuki… Are you still awake?]

(Yuki)[Yeah…]

Labiris who had her head on my right arm was staring right at me. But I only replied with a half-hearted answer.

(Labiris)[Thank you for everything… and good night]

(Yuki)[Oh…]

The night passed after that.

Their replies worried me a little. But I guess that it will be fine. I am already exhausted today and about to reach my limit, so I want to sleep quickly.

Chapter 25 - Good Morning, Then Good Morning Explanation, Then Explanations

My body felt heavy and my head not clear… Yes, that's true, I went to bed yesterday.
Why couldn't my body move? Was it the so-called after sleep paralysis?
My chest was tightly oppressed, it was painful.
When I looked around, the day had already risen.
I was bound so tight that the only thing I was able to move was my hand. And when I moved it to the upper part of the futon…

(Labiris)「Su□,Su□…」

Labiris was sleeping there.
Oh, I can remember now. I was in the other world was it… And I had to manage a Dungeon.
Because I was sleeping in a Japanese style Inn, I had a strange homesickness like feeling that you have when you're far away from home for too long.

(Labiris)「N, … Su□」

I pushed her aside the top of my chest trying not to wake her up.
Was this the so-called child room feeling?
Although I remember the horrors of last night, I was somehow feeling warm and good now.

Well, now is the time to prepare breakfast, I can't cut it, right? Let's refine it quickly with DP
Because I will explain a lot, they will need plenty of strenght.
(Yuki)「Oi, Wake up Mauve!。Otherwise, no rice for you!」
(Mauve)「I…Is this morning?」
(Yuki)「Come on, until when did you party? 」

Mauve finally started to wake up after receiving my kicks.
Raija and Curse had already gotten up and were tidying the futons.

(Mauve)「Huh, morning teas are delicious.」
(Yuki)「Yes it is. When accustomed to tea, it's a good drink that calms the mind」

We leisurely enjoyed tea near the window.

(Mauve)「Where's breakfast?」
(Yuki)「First, tidy your futon. I must also call the Women's group」
(Mauve)「Heihei. By the way, did the princess meet them already?」
(Yuki)「The explanations are still lacking. Millie is confused, and I must remove that feeling from here first.」

Yes, to the girls, I had yet to say that Herge was alive.
I needed firstly to explain many things to them and be sure that I could trust them. Then only would I tell them about Herge.
Expecialy for you Mauve, if you don't want to get hated by Millie.

(Mauve)「Alright, I will not interfere with them. Okay, get done quickly with the futon. Okay?」

So, I started to fold the futon.
I still have to wake up the girls… And the children I had left untreated.
(Labiris)「You came… How dare you throwing me away, don't you have any shame?」
(Yuki)「No, I didn't mean to.」

As I thought, Labiris glared at me from the Futon.
Aslin and Philia were rubbing their eyes. They seemed to be still in the world of dreams.

(Yuki)「Okay, okay. I will teach you the luxury of this Inn soon. But before that, I will wake up the other girls first.」

Holding Aslin and Philia, and together with Labiris, we left the room.
They were heavy. Well, they are kind of cute so I guess it was okay.

The thing which crossed my mind was an image of a parent and his childs.

(Labiris)「I'm still sleepy…So…」
(Yuki)「But hey, I don't have three arms, only two.」
(Labiris)「Promise me …」
(Yuki)「Why are you showing a sorrowful face? Well, come here and climb onto my shoulder. Be careful with your balance.」

Labiris seemed very lonely, so I offered my shoulders to her.
This proposal should not fall out of Aslin and Philia.

(Labiris)「Thank you…」

She was now on my shoulders and placed her hands over my head.
By the way, two melons were hitting my heads, but I ignored them.
So, next door.

(Yuki)「Oi, are you awake? Open here」
(Lutz)「Yes, Onii-san.I'm awake yo ~ 」

To answer me, Lutz opened the door but…

(Lutz)「Eh ~ …Are you doing childcare?」
(Yuki)「I don't deny」
(Lutz)「You don't deny that desu ne. For everything you've done, thank you. What will we have for this morning meal?」
(Yuki)「Ah, but before that, I'll show you the taste of unique luxury of this Inn.」
(Lutz)「That's bad ~ ,don't you think everyone else is already in an over luxury state? Of course, I'd like to see what more luxurious things you will show me. But…」

While I was chatting with Lutz, Ellis and Millie came here.

(Ellis)「Also, is it going to be once again strange and extravagant?」
(Millie)「Oh, I became accustomed enough to luxury in that half a day. I had been hoping to hear more from Yuki-San」

Ellis had already given up. As for Millie, helplessness could be seen on her face.

(Yuki)「Fufufu… Take everyone and go to the outdoor hot spring!! It's the highest luxury facility!!」

Japanese Inn. They said the Onsen hosted by a Japanese Inn are the most luxurious. You could take a bath at any time!!
In the morning, in the day and the evening!!

(Yuki)「It's the program after waking up. Put your clothes in the basket the same as yesterday. Your change will be next to the basket too」
(Lutz)「What can I say…? About the luxury that we can step into the bath whenever we want? Moreover, to have this as the program after waking up… We even have our change of clothing there. Oni-San, aren't you spoiling us?」
(Yuki)「No, as long as you are here, like I said yesterday, it's normal. But you will have to maintain the Dungeon well if you want to keep it. If you work hard, this kind of life can be preserved forever. So please, think of today morning lightly and freshen yourselves」
(Lutz)「I still want to say many things but… I will obediently follow you Oni-san.Because this kind of luxury, is a once in a lifetime experience.」

After Lutz had said that, everyone was now in the room.

(Lutz)「What will you do Oni-san? Will you enter together?」
(Yuki)「No, I'm not going. Can I rely on you for the children? I want to go to the men's bath and enjoy it leisurely」

I tried to give the three little girls to Lutz but.

(Labiris)「Me too, I also go to the men's bath…」
(Aslin)「Together Desu—」
(Philia)「Desu！！」

Aslin and Philia were holding me. They seemed to have woken up way too fast.
As for Labiris, she clung to my head tightly with her two melons pressed onto my head.

(Lutz)「Oni-san I'm sorry… I'm not Oni-San wife, so I can't find a way to take care of the children」

(Yuki)「Haaa, It's inevitable. When you get out of the bath, gather where we ate dinner yesterday. We will have breakfast there later.」
(Lutz)「Roger De ~ su」

After that, I parted from Lutz and the other and entered the men's bath.

(Yuki)「You learned the way yesterday, do you remember?」
(Philia)「All, all right desu!」
(Aslin)「I can't remember really well.」
(Labiris)「Because they are heavy, please help me again」

That they couldn't remember well except for one was normal, because they were children, after all, they will need time to learn it.
Honestly, Labiris, you did that on purpose, didn't you? Did you think that looking at me as if you was a spoiled child will do any good?

Also, I think that I was one step closer to enlightenment.
Because doing nothing while holding, these two melons required incredible willpower.
After we had breakfast without almost any problem, I will explain more about the Dungeon and everyone's specific position.

(Yuki)「Before we begin, let's take some tea everyone.」

When it comes to a long stretch like this, a drink is absolutely needed.
Everyone sat on floors cushion around a large desk.
By the way, about the three children, I had one on my lap and the other two at both of my sides. I looked absolutely like a parent.

(Yuki)「I want to explain about the Dungeon. But first I need to resolve yesterday's interrogation of Lutz and the others about me. That way, I will be able to begin my explanations properly.」
(Lutz)「Let's see desu ~, I'm sure if we listen to Onii-san explanations, we will have less question. Was the matter of yesterday about Onii-san's hometown?」
(Yuki)「Humm, I'm confident that I can solve some of your questions by explaining from an external point of view. You will hear the details once I get to the part telling about the Dungeon Master」

(Lutz)「Okay ~, Thank you.」

Then, the explanation started, but it held a bit of lie amongst the truth. I said the same content as I did for the Princess.
□Before I noticed, I became a Dungeon Master.
□My hometown is somewhere outside the continent.

I said that because I didn't want them to learn about the real place. They wouldn't trust me anyway even if I didn't lie about the other world.

□The thing I did and how I managed the Dungeon for self-defense.
□Thanks to the meeting with Mauve and his friends and after having a few conversations with them, Lutz and the others were bought as a result.
□And what followed that was I would make DP while trying to make a Town or a Village.

< Now here.

Regarding the explanations until now, everyone had a different level of understanding. The highly educated Lutz and Curse had no problem, they were at the top. Following them, were Ellis, Millie, and Tori who barely understood. And to my surprise, Labiris seemed to understand way more than expected. I had the feeling that Aslin was trying to listen. Kaya, Philia, and Riel looked as if they would spout smoke anytime.

(Lutz)「What, wa, was that… It was hard for you Onii-San ~. Suddenly, I feel like you…」

Surprisingly, Lutz seemed worried about her choice of words.But actually, I was kidnapped. That damned Goddess.

(Ellis)「I see, if you can handle the Dungeon however you want, it's more convenient than a castle. It would be wonderful if we could make a town or a village there」

Ellis who listened to my explanation was impressed. It can be considered normal because I already displayed my skills as a Dungeon Master.

(Millie)「Huh, does another Dungeon Master like Yuki-San exist? Because until now, whenever a new Dungeon appeared, it would get subdued right away…」
(Lutz)「I don't want to think that a guy like Onii-san would get suddenly attacked…If it were me, I would harden the Dungeon and reverse back the invasion to the outside. For my own safety. And for the things which my common sense can't connect with, I won't be able to talk about them」

Millie while listening to my circumstances, had a nasty imagination about what happened with the Dungeon until now.
I think that Lutz might have the same kind of thought as me. In general, I gave out the answer and talked about Dungeon Management theory.

(Yuki)「Well, I was lucky that I met Mauve. I was able to earn DP without killing. But still, I can't return to my hometown. So I'm trying my best to take advantage of the Dungeon process.」
(Lutz)「Oh, it was like that. What are「Dungeon Point」? How do you get them? I just heard some dangerous word from Onii-san」
(Yuki)「Altought there is a dangerous method, another way exist. Now listen to me.」

Then, I briefly described how to get DP.
□DP are added for each living things born outside of the Dungeon, if they die or if they stay in the Dungeon for a period of time.
□DP in the case of death are equal to HP + MP. Regarding fixed time, it's 1/100(MP) x 1/100(MP) with the minimal amount of 1DP. With the exception that every MP used are not turned into DP. The efficiency is pretty bad .
□Caution, the ones under Guardian Appointment would not bring DP.

(Lutz)「I see, I see. If I die, then it's about 800 DP? It's hard to discern the value of 1 DP. Onii-san, what about this hotel? How much DP did you use?」

Because she asked me, I wrote every expense onto a paper. Altought Lutz and the others were surprised by the paper's high quality. I disregarded them.

Hotspring 2000DP Yearly maintenance 100DP
Summary
□Outdoor bath 500DP with self-cleaning function
□The restroom, rooms and the grand hall 300 DP
□Courtyard 400DP with maintenance features
□Food 300DP It include Kitchen equipment, food and Self replenishment feature for the fridge □Supplies 300DP Futon, Desk and an equipment box to make simple things.
□Cleaning tools 200DP Washing machine, recycle bin… recycle bin wich destruct inanimate objects.

Extraordinary expenses 560DP
□Yesterday and today meal 300DP —Around 10DP per person.
□Yukata 260DP —10DP per person

「U ~ n. This is quite the sum. How much did you spend to make this Dungeon Onii-san?」

Because she said that, I tried to report the expenses since the beginning.

First time Dungeon cost 1380DP
Summary
200DP 2km² of land (1km² = 100DP) Yearly maintenance cost (1km² = 10DP)
100DP 1□² of land (1km² = 100DP) Yearly maintenance cost (1km² = 10DP)
300DP Dungeon Modeling (1 Floor = 100DP)
150DP Dungeon customisation (1 Floor = = 50DP) ※Change of typography
150DP traps (manifacturing only) DP used depend of the trap
30DP Custom traps (Deployement) —1 Floor = 10DP
300DP Monster summoning, details afterward.
150DP Shoping system… Room furniture etc.

Total 1380DP Maintenance 120DP remaining amount used 90DP

(Lutz)「The things needed for managing the Dungeon seem to amount way lower DP」
(Ellis)「It's a little more subtle than that. For other Dungeon Master, people are usually poor (DP wise), so it's easier to earn by killing. I guess that it's natural for luxury goods to cost more money. But I don't know, Nii-san, how much more room you have for DP. But Yukata and Food are another expense.」

Ellis was thinking various things about DP and what I wrote.
Lutz also understood why a friendly Dungeon Master like me is unlikely to appear. Even if you connect with people, the DP earned might not be good. Because of this, it would be better to kill them.
When reducing it only to the people you like, the DP consumption may be lower. To make a town or a village, I really needed to have guts.

(Millie)「Considerable courage is required for a Dungeon Master to make a town or a village… That reminds me, how much DP did you have at first Yuki-San? And also, what are this thing called monster summoning?」
(Yuki)「1500DP. The monster I could summon at that time were only Slimes and Goblins」

When I answered to Millie, Lutz intervened with a pale looking face.

(Lutz)「What with this severe situation… Only three floors and they were defended by Goblins and Slimes… Even I could break that. It's good that you were able to remain safe with these little.」
(Millie)「But I understand that it was a good reason for weak people to enter. Like this, you could lure people in. Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to earn DP.」
(Lutz)「Desu ne ~ , but I can't understand how you can deal with a stronger demon if he invade the Dungeon. Is it the reason why you want the income to become stable?」

I nodded at Lutz and Millie.
Ellis who also had her idea wanted to speak about it.

(Ellis)「I understood your story Yuki-San.B ut what do you want us to do now? Should we think about the arrangement of the buildings or something?」

(Yuki)「No, I will just hand to everyone a part of my Dungeon Master's authority, and you'll modify the Dungeon as you like.」

After I had answered to Ellis, Lutz barged in ferociously displaying her teeth.

(Lutz)「Hey wait!? You can transfer it!! Your power!?」
(Millie)「This is completely unreasonable. And in the worst case if I die, who will manage the Dungeon?」
(Yuki)「Oh about that, I have insurance.」
(Lutz)「Such a thing. And we also need to protect the Dungeon Core. Because the Dungeon will break if the core gets stolen」
(Millie)「This is quite troublesome… It looks boring as well.」
(Yuki)「I'm sorry, for the people to be able to live here. I ask for your help」

I said that and asked the favor to everyone. After this, I thought about the future. My life would definitely become easier. I can't afford to back off now.

(Lutz)「If it's Onii-san who ask for it, I can't refuse… Onii-san, you helped me, you got me out of slavery, you never hit me with a whip, and you treated me with such a good treatment. I, Lutz, will cooperate with you Onii-san. What will everybody do?」

Lutz looked at everyone after saying that.

(Yuki)「I will not be unreasonable and force you to work in this Management operation. You can just become ordinary residents of this Dungeon. I won't expel you」

I had to say that, because if they helped me by force, it would bring trouble in the future.

(Ellis)「I think that I want to help you Yuki-San」

Ellis had no problem and gave a simple answer to me.

(Millie)「I can't ignore the friendly Dungeon Master here.」

Was said by Millie.

(Tori)「From the start, I want to follow you Yuki-sama ! !」
(Riel)「I will help ! !」
(Kaya)「I will cooperate…」
(TL : not sure if Tori or Riel aren't reversed here.)

Tori, Kaya, and Riel also agreed with it.

(Labiris)「I also want to help , I want to be Yuki-San maid ! !」
(Philia)「Desu ! !」
(Aslin)「I'll help…Even if I dislike it, I'll do it throught」

And the three kids consented.

(Lutz)「Fufufu, the first step of Onii-san's harem. By the way, this Dungeon was created something like one month ago, right?」
(Yuki)「Yeah, what about it?」
(Lutz)「Even thought you want us to build a village or a town here. The Inn was over 2000 DP already? And your initial amount was 1500 DP?I'm worried about the amount of DP remaining… I think that you already spent all the income for the past month. And because we are under your protection, we will not even bring any DP…」

Lutz was afraid that I wasted everything in the past two days.
Well, I didn't have to worry about that because of the DP I earned thanks to the soldiers.

(Yuki)「Oh, you don't need to worry, we have enough DP. Still 490 000DP are left」

I silenced everyone.

(Lutz)「Why is there so much DP!? Several hundred people worth!? No, thousands!? Only one month!? What happened!? Answer me!!」

Hum about this, should I introduce Herge…?

Chapter 26 - The Bitter Feeling Of A Bitter Feeling.

Lutz was considerably upset.
That's because 490 000 DP brought the evidence that people died here.

(Lutz)「No, I didn't say anything bad about Onii-san!! But you earned so much DP in this short period of time, so you can't say that nothing hapenned!? The only thing I have not heard yet is how Herge was related to the Dungeon!!」

That remind me, I didn't speak yet about Herge's circumstances.

(Millie)「I'm sorry, can I ask a question? What Herge-Sama story is about? Until I listen to it, I won't be able to understand」

They wanted to know about Herge's story, but they don't let me the time to explain.

(Lutz)「Ah, After all Onii-san gave shelter to Herge-sama. But when Herge-sama wanted to leave, she died from the attack of the Demon King. Around 2000 Elite soldiers had come here and only 1500 of them stayed alive. With so many elites, It must have been a severe attack」

I see, I see. It became that kind of talk in the streets.
How cheated, you thought that the loss of soldiers was due to the Demon King and not because of the Dungeon. Like this, it was way more convenient for everyone to keep their honor and also easier to form an alliance against the Demon King.

(Lutz)「You didn't seem to be that much surprised by it Onii-san. Indeed… This 500 elites soldiers should have turned into DP.」

Oh? As excepted of Lutz, she reached the best conclusion regarding what I said earlier.

(Lutz)「Onii-san, would you explain from your side what happened?」

(Yuki)「Of course, you have to listen about this matter. Otherwise, you will not be able to manage the Dungeon properly.」

I took a short pause and looked at everyone's face.
Everyone seemed ready to listen. Because of that, Mauve sat next to Millie.

(Yuki)「First of all, I will introduce her to you. Herge, enter now.」

Herge and Oriel came after they heard me. The large door opened to let them enter.
Because Herge received treatment, she was now looking magnificent.
When the girls saw Herge, they displayed a face full of surprise.

(Herge)「Nice to meet you everyone, My name is Herge Rau Roshuru. I almost died, but I'm still alive」

(Oriel)「I'm Herge-sama's escort, Oriel」

After she had identified Herself, everyone had his mouth wide open.
Finally, Lutz recovered first and moved her mouth.

(Lutz)「I…I understand. Was the amount of food written yesterday included these two as well? But I can't believe that an important person like her would come here.」

To reach this level of understanding with only some numbers wrote on a sheet, you were awesome Lutz.
However, did you notice that there was another person included within the numbers? Likewise, Lutz seemed quite reliable.

(Yuki)「Well, I will now begin the explanation about Herge and the others. Take a seat Herge」

Afterward, Herge sat down, and I told everyone the general outline of what happened.

□Herge as Mauve's Slave came into the Dungeon.
□How Herge was protected and how I managed to learn information about the continent and the country.

How Mauve was persuaded and then escorted Herge's clone to the Royal Capital.
Why the King was hiding inside the Royal Capital. and Also, I explained about Loire's behind the scene assassination attempt of Seraria.
Immediately after, Lulu of the Holy Country Ritea had joined Mauve and tried to solve the conflict.
The punitive force Loire sent against this Dungeon but how Herge was once again protected.
Taking advantage of the situation, Loire returned to the castle.
How Herge couldn't move because of Holy Country Ritea reputation.
Lastly, how we simulated Herge's death in order to avoid war.

(Lutz)「This again… a lot of troubles happened here.」

After I had finished the story, Lutz answered that.

(Yuki)「Ah, but thanks to that, the Dungeon received the guaranty of full assistance from the country and in about 10 days, to answer Herge's dying wish, immigrants will start to gather at the Dungeon led by Seararia.」

(Lutz)「Onii-san, isn't it too soon? Aren't you too careless? Are the preparations here finished? Or will you only make them afterward?」

(Yuki)「Altought I don't know yet if we will make a Town or a Village because that's beyond my vision, for now, we will do it inside the Dungeon.」

(Lutz)「Hey, Onii-san. Why didn't you tell us that Herge was alive beforehand? Well, from the flow of the conversation I understand that it was advantageous for you to do it but still.」

(Yuki)「Simply because Herge is also involved in the Dungeon Management. For her own purpose.」

(Lutz)「I'll think about it later after you give us our rights… I understand…」

Although Lutz was still talking. She was prevented from doing so by a yell.

(Millie)「I can't understand!! Why is that woman operating the Dungeon…!! Wasn't she died sheltered inside the Dungeon?!!」

As Millie exploded, she hurled her cup to Herge. But with a particular protective Skill, the cup dropped right before Herge's feet.

(Oriel)「You!! What are you trying to do to Herge!!」

Oriel barked at Millie.

(Millie)「Everyone can understand why!! This woman is cursed!! Because she introduced herself as a Holy Woman…!! We became slaves!! How many villages and towns do you think were covered in blood because of her!!!!」

Hearing that Lutz and Ellis frowned.
They understood what Millie said. Everyone else also had a hint. Their face were puzzled.

(Millie)「Return them!! My family!! And everyone of the town who are gone!! I'll kill you… Because of you, my younger brother died defending the city!! If you try to resist my stab, I will cut your arm!! Raise your neck!! I will do the same thing to you that happened to him!!」

Mauve jumped at her and pinned her down.

(Millie)「Mauve, go away!! When you met her, why didn't you kill her!! This fellow is the ringleader of everything!! Why can she have a comfortable life!! I wish she was dead!!」

Mauve didn't say any word. Instead, he only held her down.

(Herge)「I am sorry…I was thoughtless…」

Bending her head, Herge apologized to Herge.

(Millie)「What? Don't apologize!! Even if you do it, it won't return anything back!! Don't be sorry… Even if you are, the result will be the same. I'll murder you… 」

When Millie said that, she couldn't hold it anymore. Sobs started to leak.
Although she understood But she didn't want to accept the fact that Herge wasn't as bad as she knew.

(Lutz) 「I'm sorry Onii-san but can we continue the talk tomorrow? Honestly, I'm also not feeling really well 」

(Ellis) 「Me too. I'm sorry, but I need time to arrange it 」

Ellis and Lutz said that while supporting Millie.
Although Herge did nothing bad, she was still the instigator of it. There was no mistake. It was the truth.

(Yuki) 「Finally, it comes to that. You can now go to rest. I will carry rice to your room later. If you want, you can also head to the bath for a change of mind. 」

(Lutz) 「Thank for your concern. Then Onii-san, we will head to our room. 」

After that, Lutz and the others went out followed by the beast trio.
I just realized that Kaya held Tori and Riel.

(Kaya) 「Stop screwing around… Because of you, everyone in the village… 」

(Riel) 「Settle down Kaya 」

(Tori) 「Please Kaya, for Yuki-San consideration, holds for a bit here. 」

Her voice was flat and small, making it difficult to hear what she was saying, but at the same time, it sounded really heavy.
After that, the little crowd together with Kaya left the room.

The only ones left were me, the three kids, Oriel, Herge, and Mauve.

(Oriel)「Herge-sama…」

Oriel was inquiring about Here whose head was still bowed.

The ones who broke the situation where Aslin and Philia.
They were holding hands, standing in front of Herge.

(Aslin)「Hee, well Herge-sama. Thank you very much!!」

(Philia)「Because you saved me, thank you so much!!」

(Herge)「Eh?」

Finally, Herge raised her head. Her face looked like she didn't know why she was given thanks.
Then, the two people continued their talk.

(Aslin)「Maybe Herge-sama can't remember, but Philia and I were cured by you!!」

(Philia)「A soldier had cut my arm, and the bleeding wouldn't stop. At that time, it was Herge who rushed and saved me!!」

Aslin and Philia used hand gestures while they talked.

(Philia)「I couldn't understand the talk earlier because it was a bit confusing. But the magic Herge used to cure me was warm. So once again, thank you.Thanks to you Herge I'm now here and alive!!」

(Aslin)「Yes Desu!! Although I understood Millie a little, Herge is kind. She's not bad girl!!」

When the two of them were done talking, tears emerged on Herge's face.

(Herge)「I am sorry… Thank you……」

The two little girls held her into their embrace and repeated their words.

(Herge)「???」

The two were in a situation that didn't make sense for her.

(Oriel)「I'm sorry you too. Please, stay a little longer like this and help Herge settle down.」

Oriel who was also shedding tears kept watching them.

(Mauve)「Humm, should I too retire to my room?」

Mauve left the room after asking.

(Yuki)「What about you Labiris?」

(Labiris)「Of course, I'll wait for the others. These two are pretty cute.」

(Yuki)「Do you intend to sit on my lap until then?」

(Labiris)「Naturally…This place is my exclusive sit after all.」

While she said that, Labiris adjusted her posture on my lap.

(Yuki)「It can't be helped. Well, what would you like for tonight's dinner?」
(Labiris)「If it's made by Yuki, anything!」

Well, what can I do about this daughter's hope? She wants homemade cooking huh.
(TL : Yuki said Musume which should mean daughter here.)

Chapter 27 - Usagi-San, Usagi-San

When Herge finally settled down, Aslin and Philia came back to me.
Look like Herge thought of Philia and Aslin as angels.

(Herge)「I will raise these children!! They will become excellent lady!! And then, I'll marry them!! I can't show the world of adults to these kids. They have such a beautiful mind!!」

While she was crying, I separated the two from her embrace.
Ah… Nothing was settled at all.

(Yuki)「I'll take my leave now. I'll go to the kitchen and make everyone's lunch.」

(Aslin)「Very well!!」

(Philia)「Do your best!!」

(Labiris)「You're leaving…」

With me, I carried the three children.
Honestly, To bring one with each arm is very hard.
Although it was nothing to carry Labiris on my shoulders, it wasn't the same for my arms at all.
Well, with that, my physical strength should rise accordingly…
Was my mental not high enough?
Because the three seemed happy, let's try to endure it.

(Yuki)「Then I will cook dinner now. I will teach you as well. You have to listen properly.」

The first step in learning for a beginner is to prepare 「Onigiri」.
If you fail at this, that means you will never be suitable for cooking.
Or rather, I never saw someone fail to do this.

No, once when I was studying… There was that guy. He tried to wash the rice with a detergent.
He indeed stopped before it was too late… But what kind of joke was that? This schoolmate of mine, seriously!!

(Aslin)「Was rice the sticky and small thing we ate for breakfast?」

Aslin tilted her head to the side. Her beautiful maroon colored little bob swung.
As excepted of the child chosen by Mauve.
The gesture of the 11 years old little girl looked very cute, just like a doll.
Different than Labiris, her flat chest was well suited for her size. It kept her future potential hidden.

(Yuki)「We will use this rice for today's lunch.」

Saying that, I displayed the content of the rice cooker.

(Philia)「Ah ~ , it's warm, it will do a great meal.」

Philia and Aslin came over together to look.
Even though Philia is a dwarf, she had the figure of a loli. Her ponytail was swaying.
By all means, I want her always to remain with this good-looking face of a child.
I am not a lolicon. And never will I. However, In fantasy, a lolicon loving a dwarf would probably be a classic.

(Aslin)「Say, Yuki-San, what kind of work do you need my help with?!」

Aslin stared at me with expectations.
Oh, I remember now. Aslin said that she was good at housework.
Are you worked up this much because you never had the chance to prove your usefulness before?

(Yuki)「Alright, but be careful since this is the first time you will use these tools. For now, listen to my instructions.」

(Aslin)「Yes ! !」

(Philia)「Me too, I want to help!!」

Although I said that, we only washed the rice and turned the switch on.

(Labiris)「Do your best. I'm looking forward to it…」

(Yuki)「For the time being Labiris, Do you mind going down from my shoulders?」

(Labiris)「If I'm in the way… I will go down…」

Her voice sounded a bit sad. Using my back as a support for her feet, she finally reached the floor and turned her face toward me.

(Labiris)「Tell me when I can ride you again… Until then, I'll endure…」

Labiris looked at me with her upturned eyes.

(Yuki)「Haa, Don't worry, you're not a hindrance」

I said that and took her into my embrace.
I'm not a lolicon…It's my obligation as her guardian, and I would feel bad otherwise.

(Labiris)「Thank you…」

Labiris murmured that and brought my head into her embrace. I remained like this for a little while.
Because of the two melons, breathing was difficult.

(Aslin)「Yes!!」

(Philia)「I will do my best!!」

(Labiris)「OK…」(TL: Author-san wrote OK in English, I laughed there xD)

Then, we made a miso soup. And with the cooked rice, we shaped Onigiri.
Although Aslin had yet to be satisfied with her results, it was very satisfying for her first time.

From the next day onward, let's teach her how to use the different cooking utensils and make various dishes.

After that, I carried the meals to each room.

Mauve was normal.
No, Mauve wasn't normal, he was making a sluttish face.
Out.

Because Herge tried to kidnap Aslin and Philia, I calmed her. (Brutally)

When I entered the women's room, Millie had already settled a little. I bowed my head to her and said.

(Yuki)「Well, I will not force you to cooperate. I cannot afford to have you hurt because of your feelings. Millie, even if you don't want to contribute, I won't blame you.」

(Millie)「Yes…」

(Yuki)「Oh, anyway. Here's your meal.」

Aslin put the dishes besides Millie.

(Aslin)「Ano, Millie-san. I made this. Yuki-San taught me!! These are onigiri desu. Do you want to try them? It's delicious!! This thing called salt made it even more delicious!! Please, cheer up…」(TL: Not sure of the meaning: 色々このふりかけ？)

When Aslin explained the food to her utmost, Millie was surprised.

(Millie)「You did a good job watching after the kids. I'm quite sensitive about this kind of consideration」

With her hand, she did pompom on Aslin's head.

(Millie)「So lovely… Aslin, Thank you! I'll gladly eat the meal.」

(Aslin)「Yes!!」

That's good. Millie seemed to be okay now.
Even were the best trio. They are eating willingly … huh?

(Yuki)「Ellis, where is Lutz?」

(Millie)「Oh, she said that she wanted to bath and headed there, no?」

(Yuki)「I'll place her meal here. She can just eat it afterward.」

(Millie)「Yes, I understand」

By the way, I told them to bring the tableware to the kitchen after they're done eating.
Well, what should I do now?
And while I was thinking about such a thing…

(Labiris)「Let's go to the open bath… Together.」
(Philia)「Yeah, I want to go」
(Aslin)「Un」

If you say that when I'm transporting you, then I can't help but going.
Soon, we arrived in front of the hot spring.

(Labiris)「I decline…Let's go to the men's bath.」

(Philia)「Together Desu—」

(Aslin)「Desu」

Well… when they grow up they will say「—No I hate bathing together!!」or something of the like.
Should we make memories here before it's too late?

In the end, I had to go with them…

(Yuki)「You have to diligently wash your head and body□」

While I Urged the kids first to wash themselves, they ran around the bath and fell…

(Lutz)「Oya, Onii-san. Did you want to join me that badly?」

Lutz was staring at the sky absentmindedly.

(Yuki)「No, I'm here because it's the men's bath」

(Lutz)「U ~ n…, I didn't know that I was upset to that extent ~ 」

Lutz finally noticed after looking around. Look like she mistook the men's bath for the women's bath.
I don't think she did it on purpose.
She probably entered the bath to calm down her crispness a bit.

(Yuki)「Are you okay? Was it because of Herge…?」

(Lutz)「Eee, well. One problem amongst others for this little girl ~ 」

After the girl had said that, she moved something in her hands.
That thing, was it something carved with wood? Similar to a doll, she was playing with it.

(Aslin)「That, is it a Usagi-san?」

Aslin who was now in the bath showed interest towards Lutz's little doll.

(Philia)「Eh ~ , Lutz-san is truly skilled!! You wouldn't loose to a dwarf. You already won my respect!!」

(Aslin)「Wow, is it really handmade, Philia-chan?」

(Philia)「Yes it is. Look like Lutz's talent improved.」

Eh, Philia did you know her beforehand?
However, Lutz was actually very dexterous.
After Aslin had kept watching the doll Lutz held for a while, she was presented the toy.

(Lutz)「I will give this to you Aslin-chan. Originally it was an experiment for children. It can float on the surface of water. You can have it. You'll have more use of it than me.」

(Aslin)「Can I take it, for real!?」

(Lutz)「Yes, please be nice and play with it often」

As soon as Lutz said yes, Aslin took the doll with a smile and swam to Labiris.
Fast.

(Aslin)「Look, look, Labiris-chan. It's a Usagi-san.」

(Labiris)「Oh my goodness, so cute!。Did you receive it?」

(Aslin)「Un」

(Labiris)「It's cool. I wonder if I can have the same.」

As they conversed, they looked like a big sister and her younger sister.
While I was thinking about that, Lutz used her hands to form a sort of cup and splashed water on her face.

(Yuki)「Ano… Does this Usagi-san have a story attached to it?」

(Lutz)「Nothing good… Even though I like you a lot Onii-san, there's thing I don't want to tell you…」

(Yuki)「Sorry for asking…」

At that moment, only the voices of the children could be heard from the bath.

(Lutz)「I feel ashamed of myself… But I don't like that Herge is participating」

(Yuki)「…」

(Lutz)「Did I understand well…? You used Herge's safety as insurance for the contract signed by the king, right?」

(Yuki)「Oh」

Again, Lutz splashed water onto her face.

(Lutz)「This Usagi-san is indeed mine, but its previous owner met a tragic end… A short time… It was only for three days.」

Lutz began to narrate her story.The story which concerned the Usagi-san.
side : Lutz

Even if I speak about it, it's not like I'll be able to revive the girl…
This Usagi-san's owner is also the guardian of Aslin. He's a kind Dungeon Master. I think it's fine if I talk to him about this story.

(Lutz)「So, where should I begin with? Well…

Before I became a slave, I was working as a merchant.

I went on all kind of adventures even though I have moderate skills.

I traveled along fellow adventurers. I have to thank them for that.

After I had traveled for quite some time, I became well experienced regarding business. I even thought of new goods to bring on the market all by myself. I stopped at a village and tried to make my thought into reality.

So I took pieces of wood and started carving.

At that time, a cute girl came looking at it.

Was she around the same age as Aslin? I couldn't tell at all.

Therefore, she called out to me. She wanted to purchase what I was doing.

With a bright smile, she said something like 「Usagi-san da ~ 」

As a merchant, I made something unreasonable. Tempted by her beautiful smile, I gave her my Usagi-san for free.

What did we do after she took the Usagi-san? We did business together, talked together and went to the river to play together.

The aftermath came later inside the village.

Everything ended in the middle of the night. I was still thinking about my accomplishment of the same day.

Suddenly, and because it was a small village, it was crushed in no time.

Amidst the confusion, my fellow adventurers all left separately. Because chaos was everywhere, I tried to use that and flee.

At that time, whether it was good fate or not, I encountered the girls whom I left the Usagi-san to.

Without thinking, I held the hand of the girl, willing to help her out.

And with only a little more, I would have left the village…

However, at that very moment, the girl dropped her Usagi-san. I had to go back.

My hand shook, I didn't know why but I went to take back the Usagi-san.

The moment I picked it up, multiple arrows struck the girl.

When that happened, my only thought was to save that girl. I couldn't walk away. If she was unlucky and suffered a fatal wound, she wouldn't live long with her small body.

Immediately, I ran up to her, but she was mortally wounded…

Everything was the fault of the Usagi-san I made… I had deep regrets…

While I was regretting, I hugged the child's corpse and started crying.

Before I noticed, someone grabbed me, and I became a slave.

Then I was chosen by Curse, and met you Onii-san.」

Once again, I put hot water on my face.
I didn't want to show my tear to that man.

(Yuki)「Do you think this girl hold a grudge… Since you have regrets?」

(Lutz)「I don't know. I would like to hear it myself one day.」

(Lutz)「Idiot. You ask for an answer when the answer is right in front of yourself.」

When I said that, Onii-san shifted his gaze immediately to where Aslin was playing.

(Lutz)「Wasn't the Usagi-san I gave her able to make her smile…?」

(Yuki)「Until today, out of four people, four enjoyed the Usagi-san. Whether it increase or decrease in amount, in the end, everything will depend on you, Lutz.」

(Lutz)「Able to increase…?」

(Yuki)「Of course, if you do your best here. This kind of exclusive product will never be a bother. I want it as one of this place's specialty.」

(Lutz)「You are as careless as ever. But my mind is still not clear… I think that I will get better by tomorrow. So I will go out first…」

After I said that and when I tried to stand, my vision distorted.
Was it as this guy said yesterday, because of hot water?

(Yuki)「Here, I didn't know how long you did, but because you entered the bath earlier it was likely to happen.」

(Lutz)「Sorry」

You helped me Onii-san, as expected of you.

To be honest, I don't care if you can see my naked body, but to be held by Onii-san's arm is another story…

(Yuki)「Yosh, everyone let's go. Give me a little help here. Lutz isn't feeling well because of the hot water.」

(Philia)「Roger」

(Labiris)「Oh, right now I'm feeling dizzy because of the heat…」

(Yuki)「Come on Labiris, don't joke with that. It's dangerous for her life.」

After speaking with the three children, I was carried by Onii-san in the princess carry position without difficulty toward the dressing room.

(Lutz)「O, Onii-san!?What with that way of carrying!?」

(Yuki)「Oh, it's a method I had read once in a Romance. I didn't know if you would be pleased by this or not but I had to try. And please, you can only hold a grudge against yourself as you were the one drowning because of hot water.」

This person is romantic in strange ways.

(Labiris)「Tche…!!」

Labiris-chan, you are already like the legal wife so don't click your tongue like that.

You're scary.

Chapter 28 - I Love You, My Master.

Tonight, right after dinner, I was wondering what I could do.
If I want everyone to work with the Dungeon, I have to remodelate it beforehand.
What would be the more efficient? Restructuring the Dungeon? Increasing our Monster's force?

(Yuki)「And what about the traps?」

Was something I muttered while being in my room.

(Labiris)「Traps…?You mean, for the Dungeon?」

As usual, Labiris was staying on my knees. And while she said that, she looked at my face.
She had long purple hair arranged in a twin tails style. With her alluring eyes, she was as beautiful as a doll.
Her chest was big, way bigger than Aslin's.Without a doubt, they were the size of melons.That being the case, they were way too large.
I think that I already said it before, but her height should be somewhere around 140cm.Like everyone, I want to know her three sizes.
No, there is no additional meaning.It's for my own sanity. (TL to ED : not sure if he speak about himself or about her, please check). (Ed: Healthy reasons XD)

(Yuki)「Because tomorrow we will all work together to improve the Dungeon, I was thinking about a few related things.I have to change them immediately.So right now, I'm thinking about what kind of new traps I want to implement.」

(Labiris)「I see, I will think about it too.」

(Yuki)「Okay, shall we think about them together?」

(Labiris)「I'm just surprised that you are thinking about more traps.」

(Yuki)「Well~, it's necessary to protect the Dungeon.There's various matter to take into consideration. Firstly, I need to think about our own forces and their care. Secondly, I need to think about the enemies' behavior and how to kill them efficiently.」

(Labiris)「That's hard…」

After a little while, the two of us thought various ideas for new traps and later copied them on paper.

(Yuki)「Oh right, Labiris can you read these characters? Aslin as well, can you do it?」

The literacy standard of this world seemed to be far behind… It's funny considering they are on the level of Japan's infant literacy, I think?
Still, they remain under the current level of Earth.
Look like I'll need to implement a school here ~ .
It's a magnificient plan but I guess it will take a part of their youthful time.I wonder if I will be able to manage that smoothly?.

(Labiris)「Nee, something like this?」

(Yuki)「Oh, you thought very far already.Hey here… Did you come from a higher place Labiris?」

(Labiris)「I don't want to speak about it…But you can believe me, I'm on your side Yuki 」

(Yuki)「I don't mind and I don't want to force you anyway.」

(Labiris)「Un」

When I stroked her head, she closed her eyes and smiled widely.

(Yuki)「Listen, Labiris.Why are you trusting me so much?To be honest, I think that it's a bit too early to pour that much trust in me.」

Regardless of what Labiris says, I plan to hold my promise toward her.
Moreover, I need to keep my other promise and protect her.

(Labiris)「But Yuki, you kept the promise you made on the first day.Moreover, I think that in the future, we won't be treated badly anymore.」

(Yuki)「Oh, do your eyes have the power to see the truth? Or can you really read minds?」

(Labiris)「Not anyone would trust me from the bottom of his heart like you…And that condition is needed for my power to work.」

(Labiris)「…?Are you not afraid? As soon as my mother, my father and even my grandfather found that I had the power to read their minds, they disappeared from my sight…」

Ah, the typical cliché. (TL: Wikipedia)
Nasty persons don't like to have their minds read.
It's scary not to be able to hide anything…and for her to loose the support of the people she was close to, I can understand… but what about her parents? That, I can't.
I think that to be listened day and night without break can be really draining for the mind though.

(Labiris)「Yes, when I was little, my parents were happy and played with me often.But now, it's different.」

Althought even now you are still small.

(Yuki)「Sorry for asking…」

Still on my hips, she raised herself on the spot, putting all of her weight unto me.No matter how small she was, this sudden bounciness of her was truly hard to deal with.(TL to ED : not sure about the 2 past sentences)

(Yuki)「…but there's something I want to ask. What was the real reason in Labiris becoming a slave? Might you want to say it?」

(Labiris)「I won't tell…but I can explain my skill. Is that okay?」

(Yuki)「Well, I'll try to guess on my own. But that doesn't mean I will give up on your circumstances.」

After working for a moment, I stopped to think about the traps and dropped my pen.
I laid a futton for the two who were now taking a nap. (Ed to TL: their presence is as thin as air xD)

(Philia)「I slept well~」

(Labiris)「…yes, I didn't think that the two of you would show me these kind of faces today.Thank you.」

(Yuki)「Aside from that, did you understand?That my goal isn't to merely use Labiris and the others. It's more profound than that」

The things I intended to hide from the begining, I will said them now.
I said them because I want them to cooperate willingly and not forcibly and I'm a bit fearful regarding this aspect.

(Labiris)「…Fufu.」

Labiris laughed at my unusual face.

(Yuki)「What do you think? What I said was very cool, right?」

(Labiris)「Well…It was a bit cold but gentle.It was warm albeit weird.Cold but warm?」

(Yuki)「You just said that out of sympathy uh?」

(Labiris)「Though it was a bit tactless… Yuki is aware of his responsibilities. Therefore,Even if it was a bit cold, I have nothing to say about it and it won't affect our relationship.Our bad reputation from that time can't be washed away like that regardless of what happens here.And yet, Yuki took the time to explain to others, and to me.So what could I say, other than your words are cold but warm at the same time?」

(Yuki)「I am sincere.Labiris and the other girls, my aim is not to bind you」

(Labiris)「It's not about what you said…Right now, even though I can't believe it, we received so much peace and happiness from this place. And yet, you're still feeling guilty Yuki.You can be certain, since you helped us so much, then no one who will refuse to help you.」

Labiris said that, firmly looking at me.
I mean, she literally looked at me.

(Yuki)「I wonder, how well you can read minds?.Because from now on, a mountain of problems are likely to arise from that, will it be okay?」

(Labiris)「I expected that to some extent already…Even a child like me can understand how much troubles can bring many differents tribes living in the same place.I realized that up to some extent, because I looked in your head, Yuki.Nevertheless, I know that it will definitely happen.」

(Yuki)「To be honest, I didn't want to involve anyone. And especially, I didn't want to involve you.Hereafter Labiris, we should have a little talk.」

To use them as pawns in order to achieve my goals… My Japanese's heart is aching.
Until now, I could only murder to survive.
Although they died by the traps in the Dungeon, I was still the one who planned everything.
However, if I want to keep progressing, I'll need some advantages like 「sacrifices」 to reach my goal. (Ed: sacrifice can also be read as scapegoat)

A situation where the Dungeon could get attacked will happen unfortunately.

And the one who will bear the brunt of all this is Labiris.

Everything is clear for her. She knows that I will use them for my own purposes.And if the worst thing happens, they'll die.
For me, that arrangement is the most upsetting.

Rather, wouldn't they be happier if they lived in peace…?
They'll meet a lot of dangers while on the front lines. But when they don't, they won't have to suffer dangerous experiences.

When I was lost in my thoughts, Labiris slapped my cheek.

(Yuki)「Huh…?Why did you slap me?.What was the purpose of that skill?」

(Labiris)「Ah, indeed.Yuki, it's fine to do as you think, I will allow it. But, as expected of your unreasonable level, you received no damage.」

I see, I don't have enough practice yet. To the extent that a slap was needed to stop me there.

(Labiris)「No matter what, I will have you throw those thoughts away.It's unpleasant, we are not some kind of little chicks.It's my own will. And I want to follow you, Yuki .」

Labiris had her eyes firmly glaring at me.Don't say this kind of things after slapping me.
I understand your thoughts and why you acted so insolently but even so.
I was doubtful… What if the girls died? And if I died?.
Rather, maybe Labiris should be the one to manage the Dungeon.

(Labiris)「Haa…I think you're a good Dungeon master Yuki .And it isn't just sweet talks.I think that you took us in the safest place.Unknowingly, I'm certain of it.」

What she said seemed to be possible…No, It wasn't like that.
Labiris got off of my knees and made a beautiful bow.
She wore a Yukata, however…Because I didn't have the time to make new underwear yet, and because everyone's underwear were drying…

(Labiris)「You couldn't stay serious until the end uh? Yuki…」

(Yuki)「Sorry…」

Was it reflected on my face?

For the second time, Labiris bowed respectfully to me. Then, she started to tell me.

(Labiris)「My dear Master…I swear that, until my last moments, through happiness, or misfortune. As your sword and as your shield ; I'll cherish you. I'll always be together with you. Let's pledge together.」

Those words were told by Labiris with her most dignified voice.

(Yuki)「Hey wait there… Why do you say such suicidal words like this about yourself?」

(Labiris)「If they are suicidal words… Then Lutz and me would die together」

(Yuki)「Just now, was it your own declaration?」

(Labiris)「Of course it was MY own declaration.Because there's no such a thing like a wedding without consent from the partner」

(Yuki)「That… Even if I would like to, I can't deny it.」

(Labiris)「If you accept,then you may say the oath for the marriage now.」

(Yuki)「Uh, sorry…Regarding the customs of my country, you're still a bit too young for that, we will have to wait for a little bit.And I'm still a bit hesitant.」

After I answered, Labiris showed a bored face and once again sat on my lap.

(Labiris)「The customs from your home, I hate them…There is no helping then… I'll wait patiently.」

(Yuki)「Be soft/gentle with me.」

Thus, once again, the two of us thoughts about the traps.

Chapter 29 - Watermelon

(Yuki)「Say, Labiris.How long will you be sitting here?.It's not that I don't like it, but I have yet to get used to the feeling.」

I tried to say that to Labiris who was still on my lap.

(Labiris)「I must reject that Yuki. Can I not sit here forever?」

Without hesitation, she retorted back easily.

(Yuki)「…You're doing as you like.So I will do as I like too.」

(Labiris)「Ee, then I might accidentally push you down.」

After I said that, I patted the head of the satisfied Labiris.
Well, on that specific day「You seriously believed that I would fall for you?」,I was so shocked when told that.
When I was younger, I was afraid of everyone in Japan.More precisely, along the road of my youth.
There were a lot of girls who liked to do pranks of that level.This happened in my school days, I almost drowned in despair.

(Labiris)「…Tell me everything about that girl.I'll kill her.」

(Yuki)「Don't worry.」

(Labiris)「…It's a big problem.The woman that made Yuki feel like this, I'll torture her until she regrets being born.」

(Yuki)「Calm down, it's useless to attack that person. You shouldn't mind her either.It's fine to think to that extent.」

To calm Labiris who was incessantly throwing dangerous words, I hugged her firmly.
That was dangerous.I thought we were on the Kuudere course but looks like it's balanced with a few Yandere elements.

While I was thinking about traps with Labiris (No, we were not flirting). A report came from the slime scouts and small animals that were patrolling around the area. Apparently, people neared towards here.

(Yuki)「That's bad.The ennemies are… One woman and… About 10 men, are they thieves?」

(Labiris)「What's happening?」

(Yuki)「Humans are near the Dungeon.But I can't meddle unskillfully.」

(Labiris)「…Why?」

(Yuki)「Now this Dungeon is supposed to remain peaceful thanks to Herge.This mean that we can't show the Dungeon running wild to the other party. Under Herge's supervision, we can't use brute force like how Seraria would do, so the Dungeon would likely be taken over. That's why, we should send Mauve & Co, Millie and Lutz to intercept them.」

(Labiris)「…Disguised as travelers, Mauve and Lutz would help the woman?」

(Yuki)「If they are thieves, even if the woman ran, it would be fine.However, if they happen to be soldiers or assassins…」

(Labiris)「…It would be a perfect opportunity to add false charge on this Dungeon.」

(Yuki)「Because this place will soon become a town village, we can't create any reason for them to complain regardless of why they come here.」

(Labiris)「…Regarding the monsters of this Dungeon, wouldn't it be fine if they attack under the directives of someone?」

(Yuki)「About that…」

Well, let's judge it after watching them through the video.
According to the Slime scouts and the small animals, they seemed to have a bit of distance remaining inside the forest before reaching here.
In the meantime, let's verify both ideas.

(Yuki)「I'll decide after watching the video.」

(Labiris)「Video?」

(Yuki)「Yes, which reminds me, you don't know about that yet.Lets see「Call」everyone.」

(Labiris)「…?Call?」

When Labiris murmured, a blue screen appeared right in front of us.

(Labiris)「What's this?」

(Yuki)「It will work if I don't call everyone's name one by one, right?.Everyone can be seen with this, try pressing your button.」

(Labiris)「This?」

When Labiris pushed the button, the face of 13 persons appeared inside 13 distinct windows.
(Ed: Hail Yuki, the first person to create a video-conference in another world xD)

(Lutz)『Wh wh what's that!? Is that you onii-san and Labiris-Chan?』

As usual, the reaction of Lutz was as good as ever. I mean good in a bad sense.

(Yuki)「Can the others see our face as well?.Please answer if you do.」

Everyone answered positively to my question.

(Yuki)「This ability is designated for every member under Guardian appointment. Its use is to ease the communication between us.Please gather at the Banquet Hall where we ate reakfast. There are some Humans near the Dungeon.I want to discuss about how to deal with them.」

With Labiris on my shoulders, I transported Aslin and Philia who were sleeping until now. I headed towards the Hall.

(Yuki)「Everyone sure is fast.」

(Lutz)「No ~ , isn't onii-san's room the farthest?.It's natural.」

Lutz retorted to me.Millie had come as well.She didn't seem to be struggling even though Herge was here.
She probably settled down a little.

(Yuki)「Well, I'm sorry.Sit down everyone and I'll explain he situation.」

Then, I walked towards a near small stage inside the Banquet Hall. I pushed a button situated right under the electricity light's device.
Having done that, it raised their curiosity.From the top descended a large flat TV. On its screen appeared the MAP of the Dungeon's levels and its surroundings.

(Lutz)「…O, Onii-san.It's a map of the whole area. Althought I can understand… it's so unreasonable.」

(Yuki)「We will talk about it after solving the current problem.」

The situation was described to everyone.

(Lutz)「I see, you can't do that carelessly ~ 」

(Mauve)「With the ten of us it will be hard to held them down unless we attack them by surprise.」

(Ellis)「…It would be inevitable to intercept them if she takes refuge inside the Dungeon and they keep following her.」

Lutz displayed her understanding and Mauve explained the not so brilliant plan proposed by his adventurer's group.
Ellis eventually said the same thing about the girl once she would come into the Dungeon.
It was worth to bring everyone here, they brought a lot of ideas.

(Curse)「…Yuki, do you have any information regarding the woman being chased?.We can't take actions if we know nothing about that person.」

According to Curse, more information is required.
Indeed, in a small moment… It's here.

Then, I displayed the picture in front of everyone.
After that, some people raised their voices.

(Herge)「Lulu-sama!?」

(Mauve)「It's the Miss!?」

Herge and Mauve stated as follow.The woman reflected inside the picture was the Holy Woman Lulu of Ritea.

(Raija)「And the ones who are chasing her…」

(Curse)「… Are nothing like Bandits.」

Raija and Curse exposed that.The ones chasing her were twelve well built persons with sturdy armors.One of them was probably a woman, but I don't know since I couldn't see really well because of the full fledged helmet.

(Labiris)「… Do you know that woman currently being chased?」

(Mauve)「Yes, I know her.The three of us already met Miss Lulu.There's no doubt.」

Mauve answered.
… Yet, the fact that she's here means.

(Yuki)「That should have a lot of impacts.Lulu's fellows…」

(Herge)「…Lulu-sama!」

(Curse)「Seems like it.」

That way, the people who already knew about Lulu aggreed.

(Lutz)「We-ll, Onii-san.We are quite left behind.I presume that she is the previous Holy Woman of Ritea?」

Lutz intervened with a face saying don't forget us.

(Yuki)「Sorry, it's as Lutz said.And the one following her according to Mauve, are the Knights of Ritea.」

(Millie)「… What do you mean?.Don't they know that we have a Holy Woman here?」

Millie glared at Herge.

(Yuki)「No, in the end, they only aimed for Herge's life.They said that it was to stabilize their country.」

(Ellis)「Now I understand.But how can this be?」

Ellis seemed to be satisfied with these explanations.

(Yuki)「Well, Ellis.Can you tell me what conclusion you have reached?.I had Slime 01 reach Lulu and instruct her to come towards the Dungeon.In addition, I have slime 02 - 10 go out of the Dungeon to help slime 01.
After she enters the Dungeon, slime 01 will wait at the exit to see if the enemies entered the Dungeon.」

As I instructed them to, if the enemies reach the blue point, slime 8 will go out of the Dungeon.

(Lulu)『Slime!?At such time?』

The face of Lulu was reflected fully on the screen.

(Yuki)「Settle down, here is the Dungeon and I'm its master, Yuki .Follow the guidance of the slime.It will guide you towards the Dungeon」

(Lulu)『Dungeon Master!? I am being chased now.Will that be a bad thing?』

(Yuki)「Don't worry about such a thing.If possible while you're moving, tell us about your story.Also, be careful because the other party isn't far away from you.」

(Lulu)『…How unreasonable is that?…Okay.Seems like the best choice』

The slime captured the image of Lulu while they were on the move.

… Yusa, Yusa (Ed: Sound of clothes fluttering while running)

The fact that the slime could see from a lower angle was simple to understand.
Wore by Lulu was a white beautiful robe. And because of that, it wasn't easy to see what kind of extra clothes she was wearing.
However, it's different when you can see from the underside.You can see wether the chest is big or flat.
Sometimes, the slime wasn't able to successfully see Lulu's face.
…In other words, they were big.

……Yusa, tapun. (Ed: More clothes fluttering and bouncing boobs :v)

It was bouncing. …Wait?
Was that above of Labiris' size?. Wasn't her's the biggest of everyone here?.
Watermelon, yes, defintely watermelon size!!

(Labiris)「…What do you mean?. Nee… Yuki?」

Labiris who I held on my shoulders whispered to my ear.

(Yuki)「Alright, Lulu started to move.Ellis explain to me.Labiris in the meantime, think about a trap that would be able to capture or kill the Knights who are chasing her.」

(Ellis)「Okay, I will explain my assumption…」

That was a brilliant method of evading!!

(Labiris)「… I will tell everything to Lutz, in tonight's bath… prepare yourself.」

After Labiris said that, she ran towards Lutz and started mumbling something in her ear.
When Lutz looked at me, she had a smiling face.Was it my imagination or did I feel a chill for a second?.

POV: Lulu

Honestly, I thought that I was done already.
Indeed, it was the same person that plotted everything who wanted to erase me…
Amongst the 15 persons who came to visit me, 12 belonged to that man.
I was sorry for the 3 who protected me.

(Lulu)「It's presumptuous of me, but the Holy Country Ritea wants to kill me for their stability like they tried to do with Herge.」

(Elf-Woman)『It seems that the assassination of Herge, although it stabilized the country, became shadowed by the previous Holy Woman, Lulu-sama.

The person who wanted to defeat Lulu at that time, should be the one who introduced the new Holy Woman.

For the one who orchestrated this, Lulu-sama's power is a very bad thing.

Therefore, the Demon King might be the one trying to kill Lulu-sama.』

The Elf woman who came on the screen kept talking.
It was probably as she said.
For the people who planned everything, in various ways, I was probably a hindrance to them.
However, I wasn't intending to do anything. In fact, I even thought that this Holy Woman was a good successor.
There were some hidden things still remaining, probably.

(Lulu)「Yes, I think that you are right.Toh～」

Seems like I got caught in the root of a tree I wasn't able to see.
While my light balance was broken, the slime in front of me was hurrying me to move.

(Knight A)「Where is she!!.The fake Holy Woman must be killed here for the sake of the true one!!」

They are already so close!?

(Knight B)「Especially the fake Holy Woman's companions, at the place where she is going, I'll murder them all!!Be thankful!!」

While they advanced that way, their voices shouted like this.
Absolute bad taste. We were now approaching a place Seraria-Sama said to be off limit for the people.
How should I say this.I just might get killed here.

(Lulu)「I am finished…」
(Yuki/Slime)『You are 57 steps away from the entrence.Keep going!』
(Lulu)「How can you say that it's 57 steps?. Are saying that you can see my current position?」

The Dungeon Master said something that sounded like a complete joke.
How could he figure that if he can't see my position…

(Lulu)「…It's a lie」

Before my eyes appeared the wide entrance of the Dungeon.

【There is no one inside this Dungeon.Please leave it alone. Customers or neighbours can place their letters in the mailbox but please consider that paper reduces the number of trees, OK～.】

This stupid signboard was making fun of people.

(Yuki/Slime)『Hey, quickly enter.Or do you want to get found?』

(Knight A)「She's here!!Prepare the arrows!!」

Looks like it took me a little much time to calm down.

(Lulu)「Arg!?」

The fired arrow quickly stuck into my back.
… I could still move.

I must escape deeply inside…

My consciousness was becoming dimer and dimer. Regardless of that, my feet kept moving, step by step.
